They are not particular about the price, but they cannot get a house at any figure, and they are forced either to board or go to Detroit. There have been hundreds of houses erected this year, but they do not appear to fill the want.

"It is a good opportunity for speculators to build houses in Windsor, as there is certain to be a constant increase in the demand, and real estate all over the city can be purchased now

Farmers Refuse to Sell Property Needed for the Line.

Windsor, Nov. 10. - The officials of the Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg Electric Railway are havof the road from Ojibwa to Amherst-burg. Possession of every foot of land required is bitterly contested and the officials have to do all kinds of work to secure permission from the farmers along the proposed route.
At first some of the farmers absolutely refused to sell sufficient property for the railway and told the officials they could take their railway to Amherstburg by some other route. As these farmers owned land near the point at which the extension was commenced, it was necessary that they should be won over and much pressure was brought to bear before they would consent to arbitrate. When this consent was secured, the officials of the road decided to have a stated price named for the land needed all through Sandwich West, and the price was placed at $1,000 per acre. This amount satisfied nearly all of the property owners, and they consented to allow the railway to go ahead, but they have since raised many obstacles, and the railway people are kept busy overcoming objections and settling claims.

One particular case of complaint, which was at first not considered, is the shade trees that will have to be removed from the roadbed of the railway. The line is to be run at the side of the road and cuts off a small piece from the front of each The survey takes in a great majority of the trees, and it was the fact that the farmers will have to lose the trees that caused such strong objections to the line from the start. But here again the officials found a way learned that although the farmers did not like to lose the trees they were willing to part with them for a financial consideration and the value of the trees is now fixed when the property is purchased for the road. There are many prized hedges of evergreens, and as the trees are fifteen and twenty years old, they are valued highly by the owners, in some in-stances they are valued too highly, according to the views of the railway people, and arbitrators have to be called in to settle on a price satisfactory to both parties. The company has now settled with a majority of the farmers of Sandwich West, and they will next have to treat with the property owners of Anderdon. The officials will be in a better position to place a valuation on the property in this township, and to estimate the loss from trees, as drawbacks, the road is going rapidly forward, and it will be only a matter lasting and laying steel.

Cast Than Ballots Issued.

Chicago, Nov. 7. - The Record-Herald tomorrow will say that Daniel D. Healy, Republican candidate for sheriff at the recent election, claims that he has been elected sheriff and that the count, which showed the election of Thomas E. Barrett, Democrat, by about 7,000 plurality, is false. It is claimed that the total vote for sheriff was in excess to the extent of more than 10,000 votes of the number of ballots issued in the county for the election. According to a report from the board of election commissioners between 284,060 and 285,000 ballots were issued at the polls, including the number destroyed and those wrongly stamped. Figures give the total on the vote for sheriff at 294,943. Where the difference comes in has given rise to the cry of fraud in the interest of some candidate for sheriff

AN EASY WAY To Keep Well.

It is easy to keep well if we would rules of health.

The all important thing is to keep the stomach right and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

Prof. Weichold gives pretty good advice on this subject; he says: "I am 68 years old and have never had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one. but I early discovered that the way to keep healthy was to keep a healthy stomach, not by eating bran crackers or dieting of any sort; on the contrary I always eat what my appetite craves. but daily for the past eight years I have made it a practice to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attribute my robust health for a man of my age to regular daily use of Stuart's

"My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret medicine, but contained only the natural digestives, peptones and diastase, and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice.

"I honestly believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit, because their use brings health to the sick and ailing and preserves health to the well and strong." Men and women past 50 years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are found in every well regufornia and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor. All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages at 50 cents, and for a weak stomach a 50 cent

The report continues, describing the disaffection throughout the province which prevented garrisons being transferred and then tells of the attack on Cheng Tu, where three regiments and 600 banner men had been assembled for defense. The Boxers attacked the imperial troops in the outskirts of Cheng Tu and a hot battle followed, which lasted for a whole night, with the result that between 400 and 500 rebels were slain, about 1,600 were dispersed, and the rest retreated to Ching Tang Hsien, where they burned the churches and put many natives to death. When the imperial troops were dispatched to Ching Tang Hsien, the Boxers proceded to Hsuao Ching Ping, where they joined forces with other insurgents. A battle was fought there, and 300 Boxers were put to the sword. Defeated there, the Boxers fled to the hills at Suchiawn, where they found refuge for the time being, but reinforcements of imperial troops arrived and marched against the rebels in Suchiawan, from three different di-rections, slaying about 1,400 of them and capturing 16 alive, who were beheaded on the spot, after undergoing a formal trial. Concluding the report, which is a lengthy one, the viceroy says: "Although there still It is easy to keep well if we would exists elements of disorder, there is only observe each day a few simple not much to be feared from the Boxers, because all the rebel chiefs have been exterminated."

A LOT OF MORBID WOMEN

Thronged Omaha Church at Miss Busch's Funeral.

Pallbearers Let the Coffin Fall When the Handles Broke.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 10 .- Two hours before the time for the funeral of Miss Augusta Busch, the young woman who was found dead with the Reverend William C. Rabe in the study of the church of which Mr. Rabe was pastor, Yang Hsien, Ching Tang Hsien and the streets on all sides of the church "A small force was sent to the church, there were no men except reporters, pallbearers and undertaker. The women were mostly drawn by morbid curiosity, very few having been acquainted with the dead woman. "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone," said the pastor, as he stepped into his pulpit.

"If none but saints are to be buried from the church, then the church will never witness a funeral. The blow to Christianity given by this woman was upspeakably sacrilegious and devilish, but I prefer to look back at her many kindnesses to the poor children of this city than to the pitiful end of her life. "Many enemies of the Christian church will make much of the fall of this man and this woman, but I prefer to overlook her faults. She is more sinned against than sinning, and whatever sin she committed was atoned for by the years of self-sacrifice that preceded it. All of us are weak, and she fell before temptation." As the casket was being carried down the aisle, the handles at one end gave way, and that end dropped to the floor. The pallbearers quickly picked it up and the procession continued. John Erion, brother to the wife of Mr. Rabe, reached Omaha Saturday morning and returned with the body of the dead minister. He was not present at the funeral, but made a thorough examination of the death chamber in the study of the church.
