A BATFEST YESTERDAY

Touched For Fourteen Bingles, Loses Contest by 8 to 3 Score.

Detroit, June 13 .- One of those stout sessions in which everybody batted and nearly everybody scored, broke up and nearly everybody scored, broke up a ball game at Bennett Park yesterday. Before the crash came, there were two teams fighting for the advantage. When the cyclone subsided the Tigers were licking their chops and the Yankees were counting the dead. It was in the sixth inning that the all-hands-around stuff started. When this round was half over the score was tied, each side having three runs, when it was completed, the board showed Detroit 8, New York 3, which combination remained until the end.

Detroit, June 12.—The inability of the Figers to bunch their hits to advantage, together with plays breaking to the best advantage for the league leaders, caused Detroit to drop the second game of the series with New York by a 4-to-3 score, the same score as that made the day previous, only with the totals reversed:

IDAN PATCH, PACING KING, RETIRES WITH SEVEN WORLD'S RECORDS TO HIS CREDIT, TO STOCK FARM

DAN PATCH, WITH CHARLIE PLUMMER, HIS CARETAKER.

[Special Correspondence of The Advertiser.]

Minneapolis, Minn., June 10 .- Dan Patch has been permanently retired from the racing and speed exhibition stage. M. W. Savage, owner of Dan, is authority for the statement that the king of pacers will never again be called on to go a mile against time or for exhibition purposes. Under the care of Charlie Plummer, who has been Dan's keeper for years, the great pacer will be exhibited at several of the leading state fairs this summer, but he will be kept in a specially constructed stall and will travel in a palace horse car. The best judges of horseflesh in this country have conceded to Dan Patch the title of being the best harness horse ever bred, and his mark of f 1:55 for the mile probably will stand for years to come. During his career on the track Dan has trotted 73 miles in under 2 minutes, a record never equalled or approached by any other horse. He has lowered the world's record 14 times and now holds 7 world's records. Dan's last fast mile was at Phoenix, Ariz., last fall, when without any special preparation, he paced two miles in 2:03% and 2:02%. The great racer will spend his declining years on Savage's stock farm near this city, where he will receive the best of care.
