"THE MISSION OF MUSIC"

Subject of a Brief Talk by Rev B. H. Hayden.

A very pleasing and inspiring musical programe was rendered Sunday night to a large audience at the Christian Church by the choir and other talent under the leadership of Mr. Reginald Hudson. The pastor, Rev. B. H. Hayden, M.A., gave a very brief talk on "The Mission of Music," He said in part:

"Music stands among the oldest of the fine arts. In ancient Egypt we trace its prevalence by inscriptions on monuments."

Instructing the young. Music was given a prominent place in the worship of God's ancient people: Of the 38,000 Levites, 4,000 were appointed to the equarety, the car was stopped almost immediately. The passengers, expecting of collision, had raised up from their seats and experienced only a slight job. The animal was raised onto his feet again and was able to be led away.

Music has too often been considered a mere accompaniment rather than as one of the utilities. Early in the American war of the rehelion, the Government sought to economize by reducing the number of musicians in the army, but the generals noticing the effect sent in a petition, saying. Don't take away our music."
