INSTANTLY KILLED UNDER STREET CAR

Has Been Roaming in Woods William Sinclair, Teacher, Aged Eighty, Walked on Track at Sarnia.

> [Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, July 19.-William Sinclair, one of Sarnia's oldest residents, was struck by a street car this afternoon and instantly killed. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock near the corner of the London road and Christina street. Deceased, who was blind in one eye and slightly hard of hearing, attempted to cross the road just as the car came thundering down the track. The motorman rang the bell wildly but the unfortunate man apparently peared under the wheels. The remains were taken to Phillips undertaking rooms, and a coroner's jury summed. The body was terribly, mangled. Mr. Sinclair about 80 years of age, and was for many years principal of the old local school. He leaves a wife and four grown-up children, two boys and two girls. One of the daughters is a missionary in China. Thomas Panton, aged 28 years, died, Catharines Armenian. Rochester, N. Y., July 19. - In the person of an Armenian who is under arrest here, the Rochester police think they have found the man for, whom the police of St. Catharines, Ont., have been looking since Monday last, when Solomon Philbosain appeared from that city immediately following the early morning murder of Arakil Tarpinian, a boarding-house cook. Philbosain, who was declared by witnesses at the inquest to be undoubtedly the perpetrator, was one of a dozen men who were asleep in the room where the crime was committed.
