TORONTO, Oct. 7 .- Trade at the Union stockyards this morning was rather quiet. The commission men are gradually geting their bearings, and a large cut was made in some of the inflated values asked vesterday. Receipts were not large, totalling 1,402 cattle, 122 calves, 606 hogs and 406 sheep. The quality of the cattle was rather below yesterday's receipts. Sheep and lambs sold better, but the trading in hogs was slow, although a cut of 15c existed on last week's prices. The
