PLAN ANGLICAN COLLEGE IN GERMAN EAST AFRICA

Lambton People Will Assist Rev. T. B. R. Westgate, an Old Watford Boy, in Big Theological Project.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Watford, May 8.—The rural diocesan meetings of Lambton, held in the fine new church here yesterday, were largely attended.

Holy Communion was celebrated by Rev. Canon Davis, M.A., rural dean. The meeting of the chapter was held immediately afterward. The business of the chapter was presented by the rural dean. After routine business Rev. W. T. Hill, M.A., of Petrolia, moved a resolution expressing the regret of the deanery at learning of the death of Rev. G. W. Racey, of Kirkton, and asked Rev. D. P. Cornish to attend the funeral as the representative of the deanery of Lambton.

The Sunday School Association held its session in the afternoon. Canon Davis presided, occupied the chair. Reports were read from departmental superintendents indicating marked progress in the Sunday school work in the deanery.

Wright; home, Mr. H. C. Conn Sarnia; primary and font roll, Mr. H. M. Parsons, Forest; missionary, Mr. W. M. Shaw, Warwick; adult Bible class, Rev. S. P. Irwin, Watford; representative on the diocesan committee of management of the Sunday School Association, Mr. J. B. Dale, Wyoming.

A conference was conducted by the diocesan secretary, Rev. T. B. Howard. He was followed by Rev. Rural Dean Robinson, of Stratford, who spoke very helpfully from his own knowledge and experience of the working of a theological college in German East Africa. Mr. Parsons, of Forest, discussed the "Ideal Teacher" in a forceful address.

The evening session was given over to the hearing of addresses from Rev. T. B. R. Westgate and Dr. Inkster. Rev. Mr. Westgate was welcomed in his own home town by a large and greatly interested congregation.

It was decided to have the fall meeting of the chapter and convention in Christ Church, Petrolia.

At the conclusion of the afternoon meeting it was suggested that the churches of Lambton assist Rev. T. B. R. Westgate in the establishment of a theological college in German East Africa. The suggestion was accepted and acted upon.

FARMERS' BANK PROMISES HAVE NOT BEEN MADE GOOD

Big Deputation of Shareholders Put Matter Squarely Up to Borden Cabinet—Consideration of Request Has Been Promised.

Ottawa, May 8.—The pre-election promises throughout Ontario for twenty odd members of the Government that should the Conservatives come into power, the shareholders and depositors of the Farmers' Bank would be repaid for the losses they sustained as a result of the bank's failure, were squarely put up to the Borden cabinet today by a strong deputation.

Covert threats were made that if the Government did not speedily undertake to redeem the individual pledges of its members it would meet with trouble in these constituencies at the next election. It was significant, too, that the deputation submitted to the ministers a typewritten list of the "members who have constituents interested as depositors in the Farmers' Bank" and "members who have constituents interested as directors in the Farmers' Bank," with a tabulation of the number of "interested constituents" placed alongside the "members' names," showing how easily polling results might be changed.

Admits Responsibility.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the Minister of Finance said it would be a hard-hearted man indeed who would not be touched by the sad losses resulting from the dishonest and fraudulent manner in which the bank's affairs had been conducted. "Your application is to the grace of the crown for relief on behalf of the depositors and shareholders," said the minister. "You reason not on legal grounds, but state that, although the immediate cause of the failure was the dishonesty of Travellers, yet, behind that, the department granted a charter, and there is a responsibility on the Government to relieve the sufferers."

"I can promise you that these representations you have made will be laid before the Government in due course, and will be given a very careful, conscientious and painstaking consideration."

Will Be Considered.

Hon. Mr. Doherty—What has been so well put before us will receive the consideration that is due it."

The spokesmen for the deputation were Wm. Laidlaw, K.C., Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., Rev. George Gilmour, of Fingal, and Mr. W. C. Mikel, K.C. The ministers who heard them were: Hon. Messrs. W. L. Mackenzie-King, Hughes and Kemp.

Mr. Laidlaw drew attention to a statement made by Mr. Borden prior to the election in 1911, that the warning of Sir Edward Clouston, of the Bankers' Association, should have warranted the Government in immediately appointing a royal commission and the Minister of Finance should have seen to it that the royal commission should immediately return the Farmers' Bank charter.

Issue of Certificate Wrong.

Mr. Laidlaw contended that the issue of the certificate by the royal commission was a breach of duty, according to the finding of the royal commission.

Shoppers Busy in Big London Stores

[Canadian Press.]

New York, May 8.—A London cable says: The drapery trade of the United Kingdom is organizing war against the woman shopper. Hitherto the question has been dealt with piecemeal, but now instead of a guerrilla campaign it will be organized war.

The number of cases of shoplifting has grown so enormously since the opening of the big stores in London and the large provincial cities that the combined forces of the police and the army have become absolutely necessary.

In the present campaign the moving spirit is the Drapers' Chamber of Trade.

NEW DOCTORS GET THEIR DIPLOMAS AND GOOD ADVICE

Degree of Medicine Conferred on Twenty-Five Graduates of Medical School.

Strong Plea Made for Uplift of Moorhouse.

The degree of doctor of medicine was conferred on the twenty-five members of the graduation class of 1913 of the Western Medical College at the annual convocation held in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium on Thursday afternoon in the presence of a large number of ex-graduates and friends of the graduates and students. Dr. W. H. Moorhouse acted as chairman.

Dr. Moorhouse, in his address to the graduates and friends, said that while a number of gigantic undertakings, such as good roads, the federal square, and electrification, were calling for a large expenditure of money, and that each was of some good as far as it went, the greatest problem to be considered by the citizens of London was the extension of the work and range of the Western University.

"One of the greatest things that will be considered by the city fathers is the uplifting of the Western University," said Dr. Moorhouse. "During the years since its organization, the Western University has done much good service, and the graduates include many men who have brought honor and credit both to themselves and their Alma Mater. The medical department of the Western University is recognized all over America as one of the best on the continent, and it is steadily growing in efficiency. The Institute of Public Health has proved to be a great boon to the school."

Bound to Grow.

"It is necessary that the citizens do their utmost for the university, and with the aid of a Government grant and the co-operation of the city it will grow much larger in the years to come. The student body at Toronto University is so large that there are thousands of students in excess of the number than can be accommodated by the buildings and handled by the staff. If the students of Western Ontario come to the Western University it will soon prove to be one of the largest educational institutions in the country."

In speaking to the graduates he cautioned them that they were merely on the threshold of life, and that they had only a speaking acquaintance with their chosen profession. He advised them to be true to their alma mater, to be faithful to those who came under their care and supervision in years to come, and also to keep their bodies in good condition, as the mind cannot do its duty as well in a frail body as in a healthy one.

Validictory Address.

The validictory address was read by Dr. George A. Smith and he expressed the appreciation of himself and his fellow-graduates for the manner in which they had been treated by the faculty. During the four years that the members of the graduating class had attended the medical school there had been nothing but the best of relationship between the teachers and students. He was in favor of litigation—not the rough and harmful actions sometimes attempted by the older students upon the new ones, but the courteous action that would compel the collected graduates of the high schools to recognize the fact that they were entering a new era in their lives. (Applause.)

He was in favor of the mad dashes of the youngsters for supremacy.

He referred to the different epochs in the life of the school, especially the annual dance, at which many of the students had donned their first dress suits. He also asked the citizens of London to overlook the innocent pranks of the students, as they were merely the outlet of spirits which had been curbed by the long and tedious hours of study.

He urged his fellow-graduates to realize that the days preparing for graduation were merely the frame work of their lives, and that their success in life depended upon their themselves. He referred to the untiring efforts of the teachers, and the graduates for their future lives.

Had Rheumatism WAS CONFINED TO HIS BED FOR FOUR MONTHS.

Mr. W. H. Riley, Russell, Sask., writes:—"It is with the greatest of pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me. A friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, as I am strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

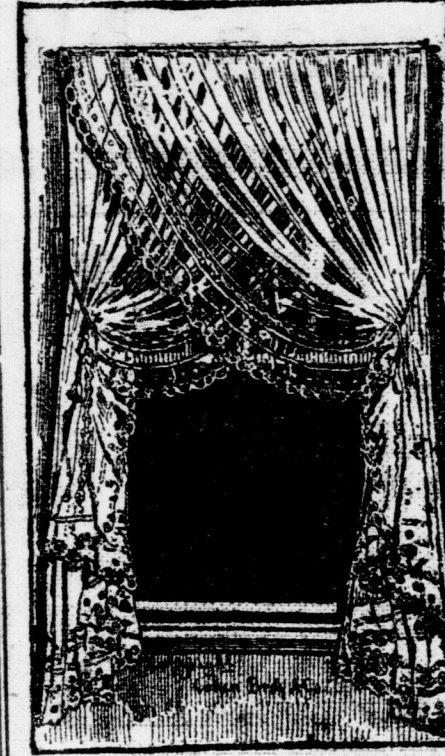

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys to flush out the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, and thus clean out the kidneys, and dispel the rheumatism from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering direct, specify "Doan's."
