Spurns Peerage as Honors Are Of "No Concern to An Old Man"

LONDON, June 29.—(Canadian Press Cable).—At the end of a long speech in the House of Lords today, dealing with the conferment of king's birthday honors generally and the case of Sir Joseph Robinson's peerage in particular the lord chancellor, Lord Birkenhead said Sir Joseph had written a letter to the prime minister de clining the proffered peerage. The lord chancellor read the letter,

"I have read with surprise the discussion which took place in the House of Lords upon the proposed offer of a peerage to myself. I have not, as you know, in any way sought the suggested honor. It is now some sixty years since I commenced as a pioneer the task of building industries in South Africa. I am now a very old man, to whom honors and dignities can no longer be matters of much con-

"I should be sorry if any honor conferred upon me were the occasion for such ill-feeling as was manifested in the House of Lords yesterday, and though I deeply appreciate the honor which has been suggested I should wish, if I may without discourtesy to yourself and without impropriety, to beg His Majesty's permission to decline the
