Montreal, Feb. 17.—Odie Cleghorn, teran hockey player, who has been Blackpool which came 13 minutes after Stoke second place with St. Patricks, good judgment banged through the Tiger defence. He could not com-plete the effort, but he had drawn he Tiger guards, leaving the puck position Billy Boucher swooped down on the disc and barred and incidentally forcing Hamilton further away as possible contenders for play-off honors.

The Frenchman's "Stop that tion on Dempsey are locars were by no means" had discovered long before a yell from the control of th day, and went down to defeat by 56 pins. The losers were by no means outclassed, only the breaks in the fourth game deciding the winners. Marley, with an average of 234, was high, while Wiggins had high single game of 323.

The scores:

Scheiding 271 197 209 268 216—1161 tion on Dempsey. The Frenchman's manager had discovered long before that Carpentier trained better when not bothered by a lot of people standing around and asking questions. He regards the mental attitude of a Brennan. But Referee Ertle paid no fighter in training as most important.

that made the public all the more eager to see the great fight.

It was generally known that Descamps had been a hypnotist and a legerdemain artist. It is but natural that a legend, a fairy tale, should arise from this.

One morning the fans of greater New York found themselves reading a story that smacked of Trilby and Svengali. The little manager with the burning eyes, we were told, always burning eyes, we were told, always to the head and then rocked Dempsey with a left uppercut. The Frenchman then sprang like a tiger, rushing into the champion, landing rights and lefts to the head. The great crowd was in an uproar. Little Descamps pounded the floor and jumped up and down in his excitement.
