SAVE THE CHILDREN

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather. Stomach troubles, cholera infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer. In most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly. Baby's Own Tablets cure these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely harmless even to the newborn babe. They are especially good in summer because they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

As Seen by The Enemy

(GERMAN PAPERS)
The Boston 'Transcript' transcribes a number of very striking extracts from German newspapers. Here are some of them:

THE HERITAGE OF SATAN'S GRAND-MOTHER

When the Devil as it is written in the Gospel, had shown Jesus all the kingdom of the earth, and had tempted Him, he drew Him aside, and showed Him a remote little corner of the earth which had escaped His notice. Here lay the islands of Britannia.

This territory is the heritage of Satan's grandmother, and her permanent residence. This, too, the Evil One was ready to promise the Lord for His allegiance.

The Lord, resisting also this final temptation, cursed this land of Britannia, and declared to His tempter that when one day the power of evil should have come to end in the whole world, England would be the only remaining part of the Empire of Hell whence the Devil would emerge to destroy the peace of mankind.

We see the fulfilment of this divine curse to-day, when false-hearted England, to gain her own hell made aims, is setting nation against nation. Her evil days, however, are numbered, and Britannia, the grandmother of Satan, will surely be crushed under the heel of the avenging German Michael, the chosen representative on earth of the Most High.—Osnabrucker Volkszeitung.

BURY DEAD NAKED

Not only have the living a duty to the Fatherland, but also the dead. The duty of the dead is to be buried without clothes. It has often been noticed that the dead are being buried, not only with clothes, but with underclothes, and even shoes and stockings.

This is a beautiful custom, no doubt, but it is impossible in wartime. The paramount necessity today to stretch our stocks of woolen goods makes it imperative that we should abandon this custom.

Everything depends to-day on our utilization of every possible piece of clothing, and only the soft-heartedness of our authorities and tenderness and consideration towards the feelings and susceptibilities of the people have so far prevented the compulsory stripping of the dead before interment.

A hint, however, has now been given to all the authorities connected with burials to put a stop to this practice and to confiscate all unnecessary clothing.—Elberfelder 'Freie Presse.'

McChesney—Fisher

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage, Forest, on Wednesday, June 26th, when Forno Grace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher, 14th con., Plympton, was united in marriage to Mr. Alfred McChesney, a young farmer of Warwick township. The Rev. A. E. Moorhouse performed the ceremony and they were unattended. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding dinner was served, after which they left for their new home on con. 4, Warwick Tp. The bride was attired in a sand-colored suit with a white blouse of georgette crepe and a white panama hat to match.
