THE TOWN COUNCIL

An emergency meeting of the town council was held on Thursday evening. The subject was the bill of the Bridgeport Electric Light and Power Company for $157.30 was read.

Before dealing with it Coun. De Witt asked to have the minutes of the last meeting read, and this was done.

The electric light bill was then ordered to be paid.

Coun. Longmire spoke of a bill of William Durling for $45 feet of plank, which has not yet been paid. The bill which amounted to $8.45 was ordered to be paid.

The mayor said the object of the meeting was to talk over the appointment of an inspector. Last Monday night the clerk had been instructed to telephone Mr. Mulhall, and he did so. Mr. Mulhall had agreed to come the next day, but in the meantime Coun. Longmire had seen Mr. Craig and engaged him at the rate of $5.00 for six hours service, the town to pay the expenses.

Coun. Longmire verified these remarks by saying that the rate fixed was $5 for every six hours.

The mayor thought the amount was an exorbitant one as Mr. Crowe could put in six hours a day if he saw fit.

Coun. De Witt said he had not had much to say on the subject. He was sorry he was not here last Monday night. The Monitor said he was at a horse race in Sussex. He had put in three half days last week in the town of the town and went to Sussex where he sold a horse. If the water committee was not going to be allowed to handle the water they had better drop it. The present stage had been reached through his efforts, in fact, the plan they were working on—the Whitman plan—was his.

The Mayor—But the town paid for the water.

Coun. De Witt—Well, I got nothing for my time. As regards the inspector he made all the arrangements with Mr. Crowe except as regards wages.

The Mayor—Mr. Crowe told me you had made no arrangements. But, we

CHILD FATALLY BURNED

Waverly, Mass., August 8.—A sad accident occurred at the home of A. F. Young, Agassie avenue, this evening, resulting in the death of his little three year old son, by the falling of a bracket lamp. The door was shaken down by the shutting of a door, and at once burst into flames. Mrs. Young and the little boy were in the room. Mr. Young was in the room above when he heard the cry of alarm and running down found his wife and child wrapped in flames. Throwing a wrap around his wife he caught his child to save it, but it already was fatally burned. Drs. Clarke and Daniel were immediately summoned and the little one carried to Waltham Hospital where everything that could be done to save it but death came to relieve its sufferings in a few hours. Both Mr. and Mrs. Young are badly burned, their arms and hands being in a serious condition, but everything is being done for both by the attending physicians, and also by Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Young, who at the present are

THE SUPREME COURT JUDGEMENTS

Mr. Justice Russell delivered judgments Monday as follows:

Covert vs. Lewis—This is an action for an injunction on the part of the plaintiff, a barber, to restrain the defendant, a barber, from doing business in Bridgetown or within five miles of it. Following is the judgment of Mr. Justice Russell: "The least that can be said against the plaintiff is that he has a doubtful case on the interpretation of the contract as applied to the facts. Balance of convenience must be given on the results of the last two days. Today he got there at 3 o'clock and left at 4.75 would not take more than ten days to do the whole."

Coun. De Witt—How much would it cost to get a man from outside?

The Mayor—I don't know. As the council had agreed to ask Mr. Mulhall and said he could come down. He has not been down and I presume was requested not to.

Coun. Longmire—Certainly! After I had engaged Mr. Crowe, the clerk notified Mr. Mulhall.

Coun. De Witt—The way I understand it is that Coun. Longmire has made a contract with Mr. Crowe and he has accepted it. The way I look at it is if the town wants to get a man from outside, Mr. Crowe will have to go. But under the circumstances he is at work and will see the job put through and it will cost no more to keep him than it would to get another.

Coun. Freeman—I don't think Mr. Mulhall would come down.

The Mayor—Well, that was never found out. The matter was taken out of the hands of the council and the contract given to Mr. Crowe.

Coun. De Witt—There is one thing I am sorry about and that is that we didn't get Mulhall's figures. Judging from his last bill they would have been higher. Suppose we tell Mr. Crowe we don't want him any longer, what are we going to do next? Send for Mr. Mulhall? He moved that the Mayor's Coun. Longmire made with Mr. Crowe be agreed to.

Coun. Freeman seconded the motion. On the question being called, only two voices were heard in assent, counsellors Chute and Longmire did not vote.

The council then adjourned.

OBITUARY

HATTIE E. WILSON.

At Clarence, August 9th, of pernicious anemia, Hattie E. Wilson, aged 31, beloved wife of A. J. Wilson. At the early age of fifteen years our sister was converted and baptized into the fellowship of the Clarence Baptist church, by the Rev. R. B. Kinley. In her early death, after fifteen weeks of weary painful suffering, borne with uncomplaining fortitude and Christian resignation to the divine will, the church, the Sabbath school, the Aid Society and the Division have sustained a heavy loss. She was deeply interested in all that related to the Redeemer's kingdom and a willing worker for the master. Our sister was the daughter of George H. Jackson, of Clarence, youngest but one, of a family of eight—four sisters and three brothers survive, are left to mourn her early death, but their loss is her eternal gain. For her death had no terrors for weeks she was watching, waiting, anxious to hear the Master's call, "Child, come home!" On Friday 9th, the funeral services were held at the home conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Saunders, assisted by R. B. Kinley. The very large attendance and the cabinet ladies with beautiful flowers were tokens of the esteem of her many friends.—Cum.
