An Inkermann Hero in Need.

To the Editor of The Herald;

Sir—Will you kindly permit me to draw the attention of your charitably disposed and patriotic readers to the case of one Patrick McCarthy, a veteran of the Indian mutiny and Crimea, at present an inmate of King's county poor house and in receipt of the begrudging "pension" of 9d. (9cents) per day. McCarthy, who by the way fought at Inkermann, and has received seven wounds, is now over eighty years of age and though somewhat infirm is a fine specimen of "that desperate host that cleared the east with steel." I have thought that possibly some of your readers might be disposed to do something towards helping the old man, who I can assure them, is in every sense a worthy object. Clothing, I have no doubt, would be very acceptable, as well as gifts of money. I shall be very glad to take charge of and acknowledge anything sent in, and I have no doubt that his clergyman, Rev. Father Carroll of clergyman Rev. Father Carroll of Windsor, would willingly do the same. (Clothing might be sent direct to the "Poor House King's county." Surely we as loyal Canadians owe something to those men who spent their blood for the integrity of the empire.

R. F. DIXON
The Rectory, Wolfville.

The above from the Halifax Herald speaks for itself. The party referred to is not in need and is well clothed and cared for. It does seem strange though in these times when the public is being asked to contribute large sums of money to purchase and beautify battle fields that old men through whose heroic victories have been won are permitted to live the lives of common paupers. Such treatment is not much of an incentive to the youth of today who may desire to serve his country.

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.

ALL DRUGGISTS: 50c. AND $1.00.
