

PRESS NOTICES.

SCOTSMAN, EDINBURGH :—" The collection regarded as a whole forms a most valuable contribution to the history of the American War of Independence. It is a mine of information upon the various movements of the Campaign of 1781."

BOSTON POST :—" Our countryman, Mr. B. F. Stevens, has done a real service to historical students in the publication of this very carefully prepared edition of the Clinton and Cornwallis pamphlets. One of the pamphlets is believed to be unique—at least, Mr. Stevens knows of only one copy, which is in the State Department at Washington."

This curious Orderly Book, which presents every detail of the administration and discipline of the English army in the Siege of Boston, has been happily preserved for the use of historians among the American manuscripts in the Library of the Royal Institution in London. This edition is carefully printed from the original MS. by permission of the managers of the Royal Institution, the spelling and punctuation being preserved even when evidently incorrect. The copious Index will be found of great service.

The edition published by the N.Y. Historical Society contains fully about one-half of the matter in the above volume.
