PROCEEDS of Wingham Band of Hope concert, $23.85.

REV. FATHER CHINIQUE has been lecturing to large audiences in Ottawa on "The Jesuits."

THE Ladies' Aid Society of Henry Church, Lachine, have arranged for a course of lectures to be given under their auspices, during the winter, on literary, scientific and other subjects.

REV. A. B. MACKAY, D.D., of Montreal, addressed a large meeting in Central Church, Hamilton, on the evening of October 22nd, on the subject "Sunday Schools, and How to Make Them Successful."

MR. E. B. KNOWLES, who has, for the last six months, been in charge of the congregation of Cedar Hill and Cadboro' Bay, N.C., was, on the occasion of his leaving recently, presented with a gold watch and an address.

A YOUNG People's Christian Association has been formed in Cheltenham for the winter months. The meetings are to be held fortnightly. The programme is to include missions, temperance, poetry, biography, history, etc.

DR. COCHRANE has received the sum of $500 from the Farrington Independent Church, Brantford, towards defraying the salary of Mr. Frank Nichol, their missionary in the North-West, last summer. Many congregations of our own denomination might do likewise.

FROM the Providence (R.I.) Evening Journal we learn that the congregation of First Church, of which Rev. Jas. A. P. McBain is pastor, is making rapid progress. The church building has recently been redecorated. It is gratifying to observe that the attendance has trebled within the last three years.

THE first anniversary of the induction of the Rev. J. H. Campbell to the charge of Cheltenham and Mount Pleasant, was celebrated by a fruit festival in the Mount Pleasant church, on Tuesday evening, October 22nd. Addresses were delivered, to a large audience by Rev. Messrs. Argo, of Norval; Craig, of Claude; Gandler, of Brampton, and Harper, of the Methodist church.

THE Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in Knox Church, Dutton, on Sabbath, October 20th. Rev. W. H. W. Boyle, of St. Thomas, preached morning and evening, assisting the pastor at the tables. Although every available space was used, many had to leave the church, not being able to gain admittance. Nineteen names were added to the communion roll, making an increase to the membership of forty-eight during the last six months.

REV. M. H. SCOTT, late Principal of Ottawa Ladies' College was inducted into the pastoral charge of West Manchester, Sept. 26th. Rev. J. G. Potter preached. Mr. McDiarmid addressed the minister and Mr. Shearer the people. Mr. Scott received a hearty welcome from the people. The congregation, after over a year's vacancy, has almost immediately sprung into fresh life and vigour. Mr. Scott was last week presented with a purse of $100 by the congregation, that they might help to bear with him the expense of furnishing and equipping for the work.

THE sermons in connection with the anniversary services of St. Andrew's, Strathroy, were preached, Sabbath, 20th, by Rev. Principal Grant, to overflowing audiences. In the afternoon, the retiring pastor, Rev. T. Macadam, on the occasion of his leaving to enter upon his duties in Morris College, preached his farewell sermon. On Monday evening the anniversary social was held. During the course of the evening, Mr. Macadam was presented with a purse of money and an address expressing the respect and affection in which he is held by the congregation.

THE new church building, recently erected at Onemee, Presbytery of Lindsay, was formally dedicated on Sabbath, Oct. 20th; Rev. D. McTavish, of Toronto, preaching in the morning, and Rev. R. Johnston, B.A., of Lindsay, in the evening. A social gathering of the congregation was held on Monday. Rev. J. Ewing occupied the chair, and addresses were delivered by Revs. A. Hall, of Peterboro', W. H. French and W. Johnston, of Onemee, and others. The new church, which is capable of seating about 500, is a handsome and commodious structure. The debt is only $1,500.

On Sabbath, Oct. 13th, a new church in Chester, a suburb of Toronto, was opened. Rev. G. M. Milligan, of Old St. Andrew's, conducting the services. The site, purchased at a cost of $5,000, is an excellent one, large enough for a spacious church, school, and manse, when the congregation feels able to erect these buildings. For the present, a pretty looking little church, built entirely of wood, and having somewhat the appearance of a Swiss cottage, has been erected. The inside is beautifully finished in stained pine. The windows are all of coloured glass, which gives to the interior a comfortable and most pleasing appearance. The cost has been about $3,000. The seating accommodation is about 200, and can easily be increased. The new church starts with about twenty members, and the Sabbath school and Bible class are likely to be very large. The work of organizing the church and carrying the work to such a successful issue has devolved almost exclusively on Ald. E. A. Macdonald. On last Friday evening a very successful social was held in the church. Alderman E. A. Macdonald occupied the chair, and addresses were delivered by Rev. G. M. Milligan and others. Excellent music was furnished by friends.

BRANTFORD LADIES' COLLEGE.

MISS GERTRUDE HART, of the Boston School of Oratory, who is now teacher of Elocution in the Brantford Ladies' College, gave readings last Tuesday evening, of which the Courier speaks as follows:— It was a daintily delicious little programme, rendered so by the readings of Miss H. Gertrude Hart, the Elocutionist at the College. Miss Hart is undoubtedly one of the best elocutionists of the day. Added to a charming presence, she has a full, rich voice, capable of every deflection and reflection, and back of all these natural advantages, ability of the first order, and an honest enthusiasm, which she succeeds in imparting not alone to her readings, but to her audience. It is catching.

The selections she gave were of a most varied character, running up and down the elocutionary gamut from semi-tragic to comic. "Vashti" was recited with great pathos, and "Little Daisy's Prayer" was sweetly pathetic. Lover's "Jimmy Hoy," was given with a richness of brogue, delightful, whilst "De Pen and De Sward," and "Flying Jim's Last Leap," could not but find praise with the audience. It was in the "Chariot Race," however, from "Ben Hur," that Miss Hart showed to such rare advantage. To the majority of the audience the memorable scene of the last round when Ben Hur urges on his Flying Arabs and beats the proud Roman, was quite visible to the mind's eye, so vivid was the portrayal of the picture. Prolonged applause greeted this number, as in fact, all.

Minard's Liniment is the Best.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and whiteness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate brands. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co., 108 Wall Street, New York.

The following diagram shows the Death Rate per 1,000 actually experienced by the following British Societies and Life Assurance Companies:— No. 1 (Blank Column), Rechabites Friendly Society—all Total Abstainers. No. 2 (Shaded Column), Twenty Leading Life Companies, accepting only First-Class Lives. No. 3 (Dark Column), Forrester's Friendly Society—similar in all respects to No. 1, except that Non-Abstainers are admitted.

One glance at this diagram will convince Total Abstainers that they should insure only in a Company where the immense Mortality Difference in their favour is fully recognized and secured to them. The Temperance and General Life Company does this by keeping the Abstainers and Non-Abstainers in separate classes, thus giving the former all the benefit of their better lives as shown above. HON. GEO. W. ROSS, President. H. O'HARA, Managing Director.
