

South Africa and the War.

(THE BOOK OF THE DAY)

Impressions of South Africa. By James Bryce, M.P. Cloth, $2.00.

New edition, issued in January, 1900, fully discussing in a new "Prefatory Chapter" all of the reasons for the war in the Transvaal. Also with appendices containing the various treaties made between Great Britain and the South African Republic. With three large colored maps.

"Here is a book on South Africa practically beyond the possibility of adverse criticism."—London Daily Mail.

How to Read the War News.

A Vade-Mecum of notes and hints to readers of despatches and intelligence from the seat of war, with a colored map and a glossary of military technical terms, local, African and Dutch, etc. Also a supplementary chapter on the situation by Dr. G. M. Theal. Price 35c.

The Story of South Africa. (Story of the Empire series). By W. Basil Worsfold. Cloth, 50c.

The Pictorial History of the Transvaal and South Africa.

Edited by Commander C. N. Robinson, R.N., editor of Navy and Army Illustrated. 192 full-page and text illustrations. Absolutely the most complete, up-to-date, interesting and beautifully illustrated history of South Africa and its inhabitants ever published. Paper cover, 35c.

South Africa. (The Story of the Nations.)

(The Cape Colony, Natal, Orange Free State, South African Republic, Rhodesia, and all other territories south of the Zambesi). By George McCall Theal, D. Lit., LL.D. Cloth, $1.50.

The Transvaal from Within. By J. P. Fitzpatrick.

It contains the most accurate and up-to-date account of the inward workings of the oligarchy in the Transvaal, and is told in a manner both interesting and surprising. Every Library in the Dominion should have it. Paper, 75c.; Cloth, $1.25.

Missionary Travels and Researches in South Africa. Including a sixteen years' residence in the interior of Africa. By David Livingstone. With portrait and full-page plates. Cloth, 70c.

WE PAY POSTAGE.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, 29-33 Richmond St. West, Toronto

THREE GOOD BOOKS

THE KNIGHTS OF THE CROSS.

Since "Quo Vadis" took the world by storm, nothing has been issued by Henryk Sienkiewicz which so well exemplifies his wonderful dramatic power, his knowledge of the early history of Poland, and of the romantic period of the early Middle Ages as this wonderful book. We have here stories of fights and also of loves. The book is Homeric in its simple strength, and it takes one out of the prosaic atmosphere of to-day. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00.

MILLAIS' LIFE AND LETTERS.

The life and letters of Sir John Everett Millais, late President of the Royal Academy, must necessarily be full of interest. In these two handsome volumes, so lavishly illustrated, his son, J. G. Millais, has given us most interesting details of his father's history. It is a work that every art lover should possess, for it is not only a life of the great artist, but a synopsis of the art of the period. In two vols. Cloth, gilt, $9.00.

NATURAL HISTORY WITH ANECDOTE.

By Alfred H. Miles. Fully illustrated, and comprising many colored plates. This is a book of entertainment and also of instruction. It takes the reader through the animal world and tells him a story at every step. Cloth, gilt top, $1.50.

GEORGE N. MORANG & COMPANY, LIMITED

90 WELLINGTON ST. WEST, TORONTO.