

What the Recamier Preparations are and why they are to be used.

Recamier Cream, which is first of these world famous preparations, is made from the recipe used by Julie Recamier. It is not a cosmetic, but an emollient to be applied at night just before retiring, and to be removed in the morning by bathing freely. It will remove tan and sunburn, pimples, red spots or blotches, and make your face and hands as smooth, as white and as soft as an infant's.

Recamier Balm is a beautifier, pure and simple. It is not a whitewash, and unlike most liquids Recamier Balm is exceedingly beneficial and is absolutely imperceptible except in the delicate freshness and youthfulness which it imparts to the skin.

Recamier Lotion will remove freckles and moth patches, is soothing and efficacious for any irritation of the cuticle, and is the most delightful of washes for removing the dust from the face after travelling, and is also invaluable to gentlemen to be used after shaving.

Recamier Powder is in three shades, white, flesh and cream. It is the finest powder ever manufactured, and is delightful in the nursery, for gentlemen after shaving and for the toilet generally.

Recamier Soap is a perfectly pure article guaranteed free from animal fat. This soap contains many of the healing ingredients used in compounding Recamier Cream and Lotion.

The Recamier Toilet Preparations are positively free from all poisonous ingredients, and contain neither lead, bismuth or arsenic.

40 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Jan., 1887.

DEAR MADAM: Samples of your Recamier Preparations have been analyzed by me. I find that there is nothing in them that will harm the most delicate skin, and which is not authorized by the French Pharmacopœia as safe and beneficial in preparations of this character.

Respectfully yours,
THOMAS B. STILLMAN, M.Sc., PA. D.

SMITH (in Paris): Garçon, parlez vous Français? Garçon: Not ze American kind, Monsieur.

OMINOUS SIGNS.—"Tommy, you may go and cut me a good, strong birch rod." "Pa, I don't think it's a good day to go fishing."

ALPINE GUIDE, who has tied himself to two tourists; "Now, gentlemen, if either of you slips, speak quick, so that I can cut the rope at once!"

"I don't believe in the phrase, 'Everything goes,'" remarked Miss Amy to Dolley, as the clock pointed to twelve. "Indeed! what doesn't go?" asked Dolley, innocently. "You."

"WHAT is an agnostic?" asked Rollo. "An agnostic," replied Uncle George, "is a man who loudly declares that he knows nothing, and abuses you if you believe him."

"MARION," said Henry, proud of his newly acquired knowledge, "do you know that the earth turns round?" "Of tos it does!" answered Marion. "That's the reason I tumbles out of bed."

BELOVED BRETHERN.—"I have this evening been preaching to a congregation of idiots," said a conceited young parson. "Then what was the reason you always call them 'beloved brethren'?" replied a strong-minded lady.

MATTIE: Dot, what is a zebra? Dot (who has been looking into natural history for the last hour): A zebra? Why, Mattie, it's nothing but a funny little horse that wears stiped stockings all over—clear up to his ears.

"Is that the Landseer, Mr. Cræsus?" asked the visitor, pausing before the painting. "No," replied the host, "reckon it is a Durham. See how broad it is between the horns, and see the colour and curl on its forehead. That's a genuine Durham, sure."

NOTHING LIKE A CHANGE!—Dr. Cockshure: My good sir, what you want is a thorough alteration of climate. The only thing to cure you is a long sea voyage! Patient: That's rather inconvenient. You see I'm only just home from a sea voyage round the world!

FALSE ALARM.—Wife (time midnight): Hark! Husband! Wake up! I hear the rustling of silk and the clank of chains. Husband: You do? Horrors! Then the reports are true. I was told this house was haunted. Wife (much relieved): Oh, is that all? I was afraid Fido had broken loose and was tearing my new ball dress.

with rice and old shoes. This friendly greeting was mistaken by the presiding policeman for a hostile demonstration; he at once summoned a file of soldiers to his assistance, and the Secretary of the English Club was marched into the guard-room under a strong escort.

PHILOSOPHER (to boatman rowing him across the lake): Do you understand astronomy? Boatman: No. I don't know what the word means. Philosopher: Then one-half of your life has been lost. Do you understand philosophy? Boatman: No. I never heard of philosophy. Philosopher: Then a quarter more of your life is gone. [Boat upsets and throws them both out.] Boatman: Do you swim? Philosopher: No. Boatman: Then the whole of your life is gone.

HERE is an Irish story which will amuse some of our readers: "An inside car-full of travellers was toiling up one of the long hills in the country Wicklow. The driver leaped down from his seat in front, and walked by the side of the horse. The poor beast toiled slowly and wearily, but the six inside were too busily engaged in conversation to notice how slowly the car progressed. Presently the driver opened the door at the rear of the car and slammed it to again. The passengers started, but thought the driver was only assuring himself the door was securely closed. Again the fellow opened the door and slammed it to again. The travellers turned around angrily, and asked why he disturbed them in that manner. 'Whist,' whispered the fellow, 'don't spake so loud—she'll overhear us.' 'Who is she?' 'The mare. Spake low,' he continued, putting his hand over his nose and mouth. 'Sure I'm desavin' the creature. Every time she hears the door slamm'in' that way she thinks one of yez is gettin' down to walk up the hill, and that rises her sperrits.' The insiders took the hint."

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

All even numbered sections, excepting 8 and 26, are open for homestead and pre-emption entry.

ENTRY.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, or the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, receive authority for some one near the local office to make the entry for him.

DUTIES.

Under the present law homestead duties may be performed in three ways:

1. Three years' cultivation and residence, during which period the settler may not be absent for more than six months in any one year without forfeiting the entry.

2. Residence for three years within two miles of the homestead quarter section and afterwards next prior to application for patent, residing for 3 months in a habitable house erected upon it. Ten acres must be broken the first year after entry, 15 acres additional in the second, and 15 in the third year; 10 acres to be in crop the second year, and 25 acres the third year.

3. A settler may reside anywhere for the first two years, in the first year breaking 5 acres, in the second cropping said 5 acres and breaking additional 10 acres, also building a habitable house. The entry is forfeited if residence is not commenced at the expiration of two years from date of entry. Thereafter the settler must reside upon and cultivate his homestead for at least six months in each year for three years.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

may be made before the local agent, any homestead inspector, or the intelligence officer at Medicine Hat or Qu'Appelle Station.

Six months' notice must be given in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands by a settler of his intention prior to making application for patent.

Intelligence offices are situate at Winnipeg, Qu'Appelle Station and Medicine Hat. Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at any of these offices, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them.

A SECOND HOMESTEAD

may be taken by any one who has received a homestead patent or a certificate of recommendation, countersigned by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, upon application for patent made by him prior to the second day of June, 1887.

All communications having reference to lands under control of the Dominion Government, lying between the eastern boundary of Manitoba and the Pacific Coast, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to H. H. Smith, Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, Manitoba.
