Church Guardian.

"Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity," - Eph, vi. 34, rnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Judei 3, "Earnestly

Vol. 2.-No. 4.

THURSDAY, MAY 6, 11880.

One E-llac a Yerr.

REV. JOHN D. H. BROWNE, REV. EDWYN S. W. PENTREATH,

LOCK DRAWER 29, MALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, MONCTON, NEW BRUNSWICK,

EDITORS,

THE English Church Congress will be held at Loicester this year.

day.

private property of the Bishop, and was 31, making 156 in five years. mninsured.

the transpt of St. Peter's for the Vati- "The frequent request that the minister can Council have been entirely removed, will use the Episcopal service in cele and on Easter-day the multitudes which brating the marriage rite, proves that visited St. Peter's were able to view the the use of some orderly, grave and devast church in its full extent.

THE Appeal (Reformed Episcopal) were the "forvers on the altar." This ritual, forbidden by canon 22 of 1874. these things.

THE Rome correspondent of the Tablet (London) complains of the late distribution of "Protestant Bibles" in the streets of that city. "In all the principal theological adviser of the Propaganda, thoroughfares men are hired to walk up and down and present those passing by with a Bible for a few soldi."

Is Mount Calvary Church, Baltimore, on Easter Sunday, three races were represented. The choir and congregation were colored, the Clergy were white, while the preacher was the Rev. J. J. Émmegahboh, a full-blooded Indian. On Easter evening he baptized an Indian girl.

The Sunday Magazine has a portrait and biography of the Rev. Frederick Courtney, the new Rector of St. James' Rev. S. Courtney, late Vicar of Charles of our exchanges announcing the advent Church, Plymouth, England, and has of a new Evangelist so far as Canada is been for some years assistant to Rov. concerned. His modest credentials are: Dr. Morgan, of St. Thomas' Church, He has travelled 2000 miles along the New York.

A CORRESPONDENT of the R. E. organ, overflow meetings for Mr. Moody, held who has been abusing the Church, and services in Victoria. Theatre, London, calling some of our Bishops "sympathi- knows some of our sainted dead. Why zers with paganism," has, so the organ is all this horn-blowing neces-tells us, "established an independent sary? Is it needed? Does it tend to organization in Jersey City where bap-glorify man or Gool Can the Holy tism will be administered according to Spirit use it to convert souls ? Are our presbyter, after the manner of the Lutherans." The organ has the grace to apologize for the mouthings of this vili-

"A CHURCH without children in its In the year 1844 a Gorman clergyman to, fall into the same deadly sin. A CANADIAN FARMER. pews, at its services, and at the Lord's village as neighbors and friends. But it called Pastor Gossner, sent out from table, is practically a contradiction in A MISSIONARY INCIDENT. Drinking always brings other evils in was far otherwise with their masters, the Berlin, four Missionaries to Calcutta. terms. The best, strongest, most growing, and most useful churches are these which A MISSIONARY Clergyman travelling in They had no fixed place determined its train. A dancing place in every Hindu Zemindars, or farmers, and the village is crected, where for whole nights | Hindu officials in the country. his wide-spread Mission District in upon for their labors, no salary even These are constantly nurturing children in the Canada, on asking a man whom he met, promised them; they were simply sent young persons dance, belonging for that greater felk were strongly opposed to the of this; fear and knowledge of the Lord, receiving if he belonged to the Church of England, out (as Christ's ministers to the heathen Christian religion, time to the devil. No secret is ma and persecuted with them into their fellowship, and training receiving the reply that he had not heard to great wide India, to take up any work close by are two houses, one called the cruel pertinacity the poor laborers who them up as good Christians to pious living of it. The same answer was given by that Goo might put in their way. and holy activity. In this process the another, who directed him to a man liv-public worship of Goo has its essential ing in a distant hut who he said was many. It is necessary to remember that children at home, but must let them getting any redress, public worship of God has its essential fing in a distant hut, who he said was functions. No church can prosper which different to other people. The Clergy-neglects its children and youth." The clergy-those found that he was a found that for thirty years he for Pastor Gessner was well known in drink themselves into stupefaction at flock endeavored to obtain justice for THE Church Review says that the had not seen the face of a Clergyman. Bishop of Liohfield, in delivering his On the minister telling him that he was What a state of things for these four their suffering people, the persecutions ment of Christian Missions. So it was primary charge to the clergy of his dio-cese on the 2nd of March, expressed the surplice, and I will believe you." The chase that these devoted four left home earnest Christian men to witness | went on and the Zemindars even tried What a sink of iniquity to dream of to make their tenants sign a paper to say opinion that in large parishes clergymen Clergyman opened his travelling bag, cleansing! Many and many a time must they would never become Christians. and comfort for a distant hand; they or godly laymen might preach with ad- and took out his surplice; and when the their hearts have fainted at the idea of It is said, however, that a religion the work, but they never dreamed of thrives under persecution, and the four had a fixed purpose guiding them from vantage, not in great thoroughfares, but old farmer saw it, he threw his arms the very day they landed in India, and in courts and alleys. He advocated the around him, fell on his neck, and with ving it up. They never despaired. "JESUS" seekers had now amounted to. To settle down in the chief town of upwards of 700 converts, when a frost that was to see who needed their services giving it up. They never despaired. leaving open of churches for private tears kissed him. most, and then to give those services prayer. He strongly advocated the obheartily, freely wherever their lot hap-pened to be cast Their glance fell on a simple people whese home lay really among the far hills * * servance and regretted the frequent Where that hut stood, a church has regretted the frequent where that nut stored, a church and point to be used in the fellowers of prayer. — The Greater Britain instruction to the vound of the vound of the vound frequent instruction to the vound frequent for the vound for the voun instruction to the young. Messenger, April, 1880. State of the second

THE Roy. Mr. Atwell, a colored minis-In the fire which occurred in Decem- ter of the Church, once in Pittsburg. ber last at Tokio, Japan, the residence of Va., is meeting with large success in

THE Archbishop of Canterbury and his

ILERE is another "straw."-The leader The fixtures and screens crected in in The Independent of last week, say :cent ritual is felt to be desirable.

THE Roy. Mr. Prescott, of St. Clement's tells us how Bishop Cheney's church was church, Philadelphia, has been "admon-decorated at Easter and how beautiful ished" by his Bishop to abstain from all probably is only the rimalistic wing of and from wearing of vestments not the Reformed Church which is doing authorized by custom, as well as various other matters. The rector intends to disobey so that the matter may come up for trial.

> THE Jesuit father Ballarini, who, as has been charged with the task of examining the question pending between the English Roman Catholics bishops and the regular clergy in England, in which Cardinal Manning supported the demands of the bishops, has made his report. It is a very long document, in which he examines the whole question historically, points out the essential differences between the duties of the secular and the services expected from the regular clergy, and concludes adversely to the demands of the bishops

"Sometime since we read an article on "Horn-blowing." We were reminded Church, Chicago. He is a son of the of it in reading a letter recently in one Pacific Coast, preached three months in the Greek rite, and confirmation by the Churches to be played upon with all the plain and antique, while the prayer books contempt- Kols," or as the meaning is, and Bible are also honorable with age, Pigs ! and were given in 1733 by King George These Kels were the old early inhabi-11.

Mayor Kalloch's Church, conducted

" SUNDAY" OR "SABBATH."

und New Testament called the "Sabbath." Our Prayer-Book, as over accordant with the Bible, nover uses "Sabbath" for the Lord's Day or Sunday. Our laws protect us in the enjoyment and rest of Sunday, not the Sabbath day. They forbid Sunday desecration no Sabbath lesecration. As Christians, Churchmen and citizens, we ought always to speak of the Lord's day as Sunday- inca Churchman.

COMING TO THEIR SENSES.

THE following is from the Toronto Globe: -- "In Cookes' Church vesterday forenoon, Rev. W. Frizzell, of Newmarket, who occupied the pulpit, made the following announcement : 'At the annual meeting of this congregation held last Wednesday ovoning, a resolu-tion was adopted requesting the Session to consider the question of posture in singing at public worship, it boing the opinion of that meeting that the congra-gation should stand while singing the praises of God. The Session has conidered the above resolution, and has resolved to recommend, in accordance therewith, that in future this congregation stand while singing in public worship."

family attended the services in the Eng-unnecessarily during Church service-lish Church, Rue d'Aguesssau, Paris, on those who do not know any better, and that these men as a rule wore ugly in years the Missionaries toiled on in soom-THE Church of the Ascension, Balti-Good Friday and Easter Sunday, when those who, knowing better, porsist in do-more, Campbell Fair, D. D., Rector, was about 600 communicants partook of the relieved of its debt of $33,000 on Easter Lord's Supper.

CHRIST CHURCH, Boston, is now more digged the ground and carried heavy ing was to be given to the Kola must than one hundred and lifty years old weights, while maintaining all the while be in the Hindi language. The Kol Erected in 1723, it is older than any a cheerful countenance. A merry dirty tongue had no words for Gop or religion, other church in that city. From its set they seemed in truth, very much do and the Kols naturally understood the ber last at lokio, onpan, the restored is in the last of the restored by the lishop, March discovery of the restored by th night of his famous ride to bexington to condition. They did not even resent the teach save the few childron gathered give warning of the anticipated English name by which they were generally round them. It was terribly disheartonraid. The furniture of the chancel is known, though it expressed the widest ing

> tants of the country and had only by degrees been driven back to the hills by new intruders, with whom probably they word had plonsed them, and now they had fought every inch of ground. Now, > Nagpore, the new comers then took their the doctrines of our faith, and the imway-Pastors Palsch, Brandt, Schalz, possibility of socing JESUS with mortal and Janke-with the full intention of cyes; they only augored them, and the Christianising the despised race, and visitors shortly loft the Mission-house, making their home among them. They loutly abusing the Christian inhabihad little pride these poor Kols and less tants.

> had little plide these poor Kols and 1658 tants. religion, so there was not so much to undo as there would have been among other seets; but oh ! the amount there was to do ! The Kols had almost to religion, and Misioharid ten wint with them into a no word in their language for Gon. Bad spirits indeed they believed in and offer and prayed carnestly. Soon they went ed sacrifices to, but the idea of a loving, away more quiet than before, and approtecting Good Spirit was unknown to parently not without a deep impression them. "Ghosts," they called the spirits, of the truth of what they had heard. that hid thomselves, as they imagined, in Some time afterwards they again roturntroes and rivors, in rocks and groves, ed and requested permission to be precoming out occasionally to werry or pro-sent at the English service, at the close. plex one or another of the human dwel-of which they came to the Missionlers around. Witches they thoroughly house, saying with joy now we are satis-believed in and dreaded, and to kill a fied, and only desire to become Chriswitch was thought to be a most praise- tians." worthy art.

them. Only in one particular do they come a glimmer how to see JISUS by seem even in their sins to shame more faith, when they behold the earnest enlightened nations. While in our Missionaries upon their knoes. Now, streets you may see the sad sight of a indeed, the poor teachers might rejoice. drunken mother, with a baby in her By twos and threes came other Kols to arms, staggoring along, these poor "Pigs" be taught, and eleven years after the ar-keep sober while they have young child- rival of the missionaries, a goodly arms, staggoring along, these poor "Pigs" ren, only when they are grown up de Church, of which any Christian people they consider themselves entitled to in might be proud, was built and opened at they consider themselves on the work of as Banchi. dulge in drinking, the woman as well as Banchi. the man. At certain festivals every one The Christian religion did not at first

THERE are two classes of people who talk in fact of India. The four German get a hearing with the rude people, but lips; they looked further and saw a They had made up their minds in promising earnestness in the way they advance on one matter-whatever teach-

At length, however, a ray of hope broke on the anxious teachers. In 1850 four men came to the Mission House. They had road, they said, in a Hindi book of some one called JESUS. The The first day of the week—the Lord's day—the Christian day of rest, which commemorates the rising from the deal of our Emmanuel, and gives us "an Eas-ter day in every week"—is never edled the "Sabbath" in the Bible. The seventh day the Jewsh day of rest, the day our Lord's body laid in the ground while His spirit was in Hades, is always in the Old wished to see Jesus. Thuy were asked berthy art. Drinking too is universal amongst the Kols. Into their dark souls had cheap tricks of sensation mongers." gets drunk; of a whole village not one is bring peace to the poor Khel, rather persecution and distress. It was not These are the sensible remarks of the Christian Visitor, (Baptist). Religious It well may; and yet how dare we pass among themselves that this persecution one word of blame on these poor untaught arese. The heathen Kol looked quietly fier previously printed in its columns .--tramps are like most other tramps, a Living Church. nuisance and an injury to the faithful savages, while so many of our own people upon his new-made Christian brother. workers. warned, entreated, prayod over, preached they worked side by side and in the same