AN OHIO MAYOR'S SPREE.

MARCHING THE STREETS WITH A PAND OF ITALIAN MUSICIANO.

FREMORT, Ohio, Feb 20.—The Mayor of this city has brought diegrace upon himself and family. The recent rains have made the waters in the river tere so muddy that many people feel it their duty to shun water ar a beverage. Our Major is one of this number. For several days past he has neglected his official duties, and devoted his time, night and day, to testing quality of the various liquors sold in the different saloons in town. Last evening, at the conclusion of a meeting for the relief of the Ohio River flood sufferers, the Mayor entered a Crogan street saloon, where he became beastly drunk. He came out on the street and joined forces with a band of tramping Italian musicians, and the entire party spent the rest of the night in parading the stree's, and even the requests of policemen whom the Mayor appointed could not stop him and his drunken companions. The Mayor will be sober to-morrow, when action will be taken looking toward his re-

THE LONDON EXPLOSION.

DEATH OF THE LAST VICTIM. London, Ont, Feb. 19 .- Frank Shaw, the third victim of the explosion yesterday, died at 7 o'clock to-night. An inquest was held on the body of Donald Smith last night, at which Frank Shaw was able to answer questions intelligently, and described how the explosion occurred. He said while he was sampling some wire Ince took up a quantity of gunpowder from a small keg and rubbed it on a piece of board, which he held in his hand, and remarked to Shaw how fine tho grain was. Shaw at this time had his back to Ince, and replied that he did not know much about it. Ince then took a small quantity from a little canister and said it was rough and smutty, and called Shaw's attention to it. Shaw did not notice him particulatly, but as he turned to pick up a bundle of wire he observed Ince taking something out of his vest pocket resembling a match and rub it upon the board upon which the coarse powder was placed. The next he knew was the debris falling upon him from every direc-

MRS. MACKAY'S PICTURE.

London, Feb 19 .- At Paris the current topic among gossips is the dispute between Mrs. Mackay and Meissonler in regard to her portrait painted by the latter. The price paid for the portrait was 65,000 francs. The pictura was exhibited at the triennial exhibition. Mrs. Mackay was dissatisfied with the likeness, which her friends called a caricature, and burned the picture. Newspapers are divided in their comments on the matter, which has become the leading sensation. Melesonier, reconting the remarks of the Gaulois, wrote to the editor that he would fight Meyer, the Gaulous critic, if he (Meissonler) were fifty instead of seventy-three years of e.g. Meyer replied that Meissonler's son should take his father's place and be ready to fight. He will send friends to arrange a duel with Meissonier file.

ON DANGING.

Speaking on the subject of dances, Rev. Father Dillon, of Easton, Pa, recently said: "I think a young girl who attends such a place puts a premium on her virtue, and parents who allow their children to go to either place an excessive amount of confidence upon the virtue of their daughters or else are not proper custodians of them."
