

ing them that he had been expressly sent by the Pope to put a stop to the encroachments of Bishops and Priests, and to deliver the laity from the burden of the dimes imposed upon them by their wicked rulers.

Should this Mr. Ligier turn up, as he probably will, in some part of the Province, our correspondent may be certain to receive all particulars. Converted priests, however, are generally to be heard of by making application to the Police, or others acquainted with the denizens of lewd and disorderly houses, and to the Police our correspondent would do well to direct his enquiries.

RETREAT IN THE DIOCESS OF KINGSTON. — The Spiritual Retreat of the Clergy of the Diocese of Kingston, which was conducted by the Rev. Father Driscoll of Fordham College, New York, terminated on Friday the 22nd inst.

REGIOPOLIS COLLEGE. — This noble Institution, under the immediate supervision of the Bishop of Kingston himself, and which has no superior in either section of the Province, recommences its Session after the summer vacation on Monday next. For particulars we would refer our readers to advertisement on our eighth page.

LACHINE CONVENT. — This institution will reopen on Monday next, the 1st of September.

In the last issue of the TRUE WITNESS there appeared an article from the Transcript eulogistic of this Institution, conducted by the Sisters of Ste. Anne. According to the writer—the examinations which closed the last academic year, showed to parents and the friends of education how great care of the pupils confided to them was taken by the Sisters. It cannot be doubted that they will in the future continue to give a good and Christian education to their pupils; and from a sure source it is known that the good Sisters, in order more thoroughly to comply with their vocation, will devote themselves most assiduously to developing in the hearts of their pupils all those virtues which adorn woman.

At the same time the conscientious convictions of pupils of a different faith—who may be entrusted to them—will be respected.

The course of education is most complete; the Convent is healthy and beautifully situated; and there is no reason to doubt that in a short time its merits will be appreciated by the public, and testified by the numbers, and the progress of its pupils.—Communicated.

SCHOOLS OF THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.—The classes of all these schools will open at 8 A.M. on Monday next; and parents are respectfully, but earnestly entreated to send their children to the opening, as the means of avoiding much inconvenience both to teachers and to pupils.

This is a point whose importance some parents do not seem duly to appreciate; but were they aware of the many and great evils which want of punctuality occasions, they would, we are sure, be more careful in compelling their children to take their places in the classes from the first commencement.

By acting otherwise, by allowing those under their control to keep away, they wrong the good Brothers, they wrong their own children, and by neglecting their duties as parents, they may be said to wrong God.

In directing the attention of our readers to the re-opening of the Catholic Commercial Academy, 19 Cote Street, we take the opportunity of strongly advocating its just claims to the zealous patronage of our Catholic fellow-citizens. The strictness of its discipline tempered by the mildest government, coupled with the zeal experience and abilities of its educational staff are strong arguments of the advantages it affords for the acquisition, in French and English of a practical course of industrial and commercial education based on religion.

In a word, to quote from the Journal of Public Instruction. We see with pleasure that the citizens of Montreal who intend their children for commerce, thoroughly understand the utility of this Academy, and the Commissioners in authorizing its establishment have conferred a veritable boon on the population of Montreal. Convinced of the importance of the simultaneous development of the mental and bodily faculties, we are glad to hear there is now a gymnasium attached to the Academy which cannot fail to attract the attention and excite the just appreciation by a discerning public of the laudable effort of Commissioners in the cause of public education.

THE HIBERNICON.—We would remind our readers that this splendid painting of the scenery of Ireland will be opened, for the first time since its completion in Bonaventure Hall, this evening. It is painted in the highest style of French scenic art, and what more attractive subject for the pencil of the artist than the magnificent scenery of "the land of sorrow and of song?"

We are requested to state that Mr. O. J. Devlin, Notary, has returned from Europe, and has resumed the practice of his profession at his office, No. 32 Little St. James Street.

Mr. J. J. Murphy has kindly consented to act as Agent for the TRUE WITNESS in Whitty.

PIC-NIC IN AID OF THE FUNDS OF THE ST. PATRICK'S ORPHAN ASYLUM.—We desire to direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this praiseworthy scheme for replenishing the exchequer of the St. Patrick's orphans. The three Irish Societies—that is to say, the St. Patrick's Society, the St. Patrick's Temperance Society, and the St. Patrick's Literary Association—have clubbed together to promote this good work; and that their joint labors may be crowned with success, is our sincere hope. For particulars see advertisement.

PIC-NIC OF THE ST. PATRICK'S SOCIETY.—At a meeting of the Special Committee of the St. Patrick's Society entrusted with the management of the picnic held on Monday, the 18th instant, on St. Helen's Island, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

1st. That the thanks of the Society are justly due and are hereby tendered to Major Gen. Lord Frederick Paulet, C. B., who so kindly granted the use of the St. Helen's Island to the Society for their late Pic-nic. On behalf of the poor Immigrants the Society return their most heartfelt thanks to His Lordship, with a hope that so kind and so liberal a gentleman may long remain in Montreal, honored and respected as he is by all classes of the community.

2nd. That the Committee of management can not sufficiently express their gratitude to the gentlemen of the press of this city for the liberal manner in which they assisted the charitable labor of the Committee, and in a special manner to the proprietors of the following journals for the very liberal discount allowed on the bills for advertising, namely: The True Witness, the Montreal Daily Witness, the Commercial Advertiser, the Transcript, the Montreal Gazette, and Le Colonisateur.

3d. To Captain Lesperance, the proprietor of the steamer "Hochelega" the Committee but express the thanks of the thousands of visitors, who feel grateful to him for his gentlemanly behaviour to all; and they also return him their best thanks for his liberal donation to the charitable fund from the price of his agreed charter.

4th. The manly and firm conduct of Captain McLaughlin, of the Water Police, and of the men under his command, elicited the admiration of the vast assembly as at the late Pic-Nic, as did also the gentlemanly conduct of the soldiers stationed on St. Helen's Island.

H. J. CLARKE, P. JORDAN, D. LYONS, WM. MASSFIELD, P. O'NEARA.

We, says the Commercial Advertiser, take the following from the Buffalo Courier of Friday:—

"ILLEGAL ARREST ON CANADIAN SOIL.—Several of our officers have been on the look-out for a deserter named Tom King, who escaped into Canada a short time since, and on Wednesday succeeded in effecting his capture at Waterloo, after a desperate struggle. Some two or three weeks ago the fellow King was arraigned, in company with his wife, before Tanner on a charge of having abducted a girl named Whalen for purposes of prostitution. The Justice suspended proceedings in the case on condition that King would enlist in the U. S. army. He accepted the latter alternative, and was immediately sworn in. A short time afterward he deserted to Canada, where he has remained ever since. Wednesday morning two of our officers crossed the river, and as we learn, with the consent of the authorities there, proceeded to arrest the deserter. They succeeded in carrying King to their boat, when a party of men and women fell upon them and rescued the prisoner. The same night six of our officers started on the same errand, and reaching Waterloo, proceeded to the house which contained the ignoble carcass of the abductor and deserter. The door was forced open, and King was found in bed up stairs. Upon being confronted by the officers, he, as we are informed, drew a revolver and threatened to shoot the first man who approached him. The shooting iron was wrested from him, and he was unceremoniously knocked down. He was then carried to the boat and rowed across the river and up the canal to Station House No 1, where he was locked up.

Yesterday morning he was brought before Justice Tanner, who committed him to jail for examination on a charge of abduction. King was for a long time recognized as one of the best representatives of the genus "rough," to be found on the Points, and it is a source of congratulation to all good citizens, that he is in limbo again. We are inclined, however, to question the propriety of the arrest. However desirable it may be, the legality of the work performed by our officers may involve a question of doubt. Still we are not disposed to indulge in censure, and we hope the powers that be, on the other side of the fast flowing river will treat the matter with the indifference which it deserves."

This story, if true, shows how frail is the tenure upon which peace is maintained betwixt the British and Yankee Governments. This fellow Tom King mentioned above, may be, probably is a blackguard; but we can hardly believe that our authorities will do less when they learn the particulars of his capture, then insist upon his immediate release, and restoration to British soil, with an ample apology for the gross outrage upon a neutral Power. Such we are sure would be the action of the Cabinet at Washington if American territory had been forcibly invaded by British officers, and a British subject arrested whilst under the protection of the "Stars and Stripes."

We hope however for the sake of peace that the details as given by the Buffalo Courier are exaggerated; but whatever the consequences we also hope that the British Government may take prompt and efficacious measure to procure redress for the outrage, and to prevent its repetition.

FOUR PERSONS DROWNED AT MONTREAL.—We have the melancholy duty of recording an accident which took place on the river about eight o'clock on Wednesday night, the 20th inst., and which resulted in the death of three women and one man. The facts are as follows:—William Cox and his wife, and a woman named Mrs. Pickering, and her sister, of Bonsecours Market, were by some means or other left behind on St. Helen's Island last evening, having spent the day there at the picnic. About eight o'clock Mr. Cox took an old boat which had been lying unused all the summer, and having got his wife and the other two women into it, he determined to row to the city. A soldier volunteered to help him, and also took a seat in the boat. When about half way over Mrs. Cox became alarmed, and requested her husband to row back to the Island, saying that if he failed to do so, they would be all drowned before reaching the city. Hereupon, Mr. Cox left his place to come nearer his wife, for the purpose of reassuring her, as she had become exceedingly nervous. Unfortunately, however, in stepping across, the boat upset, and the fire persons were thrown into the river. The soldier clung to the keel of the boat, and his cries reached the "picket" at the Quebec gate, who proceeded at once to the rescue. The other four sunk never to rise again. Since writing the above, we learn that Mr. Cox went over in a boat in the evening to bring back his party, who, it thus appears, did not intend to return in the steamer. It is not certain whether the ladies went over with the picnic party; but it is certain that they did not intend to return with it.—Montreal Witness.

BODIES FOUND.—The bodies of Mr. Cox and Mrs. Pickering, drowned a few days since near St. Helen's Island, were found on Sunday afternoon at the foot of St. Mary's Current. Later in the evening the body of Mrs. Cox was found near Boucherville, and that of Miss Waldron at Point aux Trembles. The body of Mr. Cox said to have been much disfigured.

FIRE AT L'ISLET.—On Tuesday night the Roman Catholic Presbytery at L'Islet, was destroyed by fire. A fire had been made in an adjoining shed during the previous day, and having been neglected, the flames spread to the house and stables, consuming them, and a quantity of moveables. The presbytery was insured to the amount of $1,200. The loss on furniture, &c., is about $600 or $500.—Quebec Gazette.

DEATH OF M. SEBASTIEN.—C. M. Sebastien, the composer of the "Cantata" for the reception of the Prince of Wales, died of apoplexy at the Mount St. Famille Hospital, at 6 o'clock on Friday morning.

MR. G. N. SANDERS, formerly U. S. Consul at London and late Navy Agent at New York, bearer of despatches from the Confederate Government to the envoys at London and Paris, arrived in this city on Friday, and left Quebec by the steamer on Saturday. Mr. Sanders left Richmond on the 6th instant, passed through Philadelphia where he is well known, unrecognised, and after a series of adventures and hairbreadth escapes, crossed into Canada by the bridge at Niagara.—Commercial Advertiser.

THE DESERTERS.—One of the five deserters from the encampment on the Island of Orleans has returned, and voluntarily given himself up. We understand that the party who went out on Saturday, in search of the remaining four, have succeeded in getting on their track. They will doubtless be brought in, in the course of the day.—Quebec Chronicle.

Coal oil is advertised for sale in Guelph at the extraordinarily low price of eight cents a gallon. This cheap light is brought about by opposition among some of the merchants.

The Chief Justice Sir L. H. Lafontaine, Bart., has obtained leave of absence and will shortly proceed on a tour to the continent of Europe.
