He spent one day in the city visiting Mrs. H. O'Connor, of James avenue, who is a niece of the Right Rev. Monsignor Gadd, Vicar of the Right Rev. Monsignor Gadd, Vicar of the Mass. Rev. order of subdeaconship the previous day. His Grace the Archbishop assisted at the throne. The singing of the good Sisters was exquisite. About ten physi-cians were present to honor the memory of their confrere and pray for his soul.

Don't forget the poor suffering souls in purgatory during this month, which is dedicated to them. If your faith is really a living faith, you will realize that the best way to show that you did really love your departed relatives is to offer up the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for them, "that they may be loosed from their sins." This is better than erecting monuments to their memory. The monuments will crumble one day; the speedy deliverance will be with them an everlasting rememberance and will earn you similar assistance in your own hour of need.

Tickets are now on sale for the lectprice so that all may be able to participate in the treat, and as the number of tickets which will be sold is limited, we advise our readers to secure same without delay. Next week we shall be able to announce some additional features which have been arranged in connection with the entertainment and which will tend to make it one of the most enjoyable ever held in the city.

On Sunday evening at the Church of the Immaculate Conception the Rev. Father Cherrier continued his series of sermons on the Apostles' Creed, and was listened to with the closest attention by a large congregation which in-cluded many strangers, whilst he gave a most clear and interesting exposition of the views of Catholic theologians and philosophers regarding "the resurrection of the body" particularly dwelling on their teaching regarding the nature and attributes of the risen body. Next Sunday evening stations of the cross will take the place of the usual vespers and there will be no sermon but we are glad to be able to announce, however, that the Sunday evening sermons will be resumed again next month.

DR, ALFRED VERSAILLES.

Alfred Versailles was born at Ver cheres, on the St. Lawrence near Mont-real, Sept. 8th, 1869. His father died while Alfred was still an infant. Some years later his mother married the late Senator Girard and came with her children in 1880 to live at St. Boniface. There Alfred attended the College and went up for the University examinations. In the Previous he won first class honors; after the Junior B. A. year he secured an "ad eundem statum" in Laval University and, after studying a year at St. Mary' College, Montreal, graduated as a Laval B. A. in 1891. In the autumn of the same year he began the study of medicine at the Manitoba Medical College devoting much of his time to clinical work under the celebrated Dr. A. H Ferguson, who found in him a most promising pupil. Having obtained his degree of M. D. from the University of Manitoba, Dr. Versailles went to New York for a three months' course in Polyshiki. clinic. Thus equipped for the medical profession, he returned to Montreal, where in August of last year he married Miss Richard, sister of Mr. J. A. Richard, our well-known fellow-citizen, and im mediately began to practice medicine in Mr. H. V. Fleming was in town this reservice examinations. He returned to Napinka on Monday to mediately began to plactice medicine in this city. Keenly alive to all the latest developments of his profession, gentle and painstaking with his patients, he was already one of Manitoba's most promising physicians, in the enjoyment of a large and daily increasing practice, when he was cut off in the springtime of his eager, earnest life. On Friday the 8th inst., having driven to St. Nor-bert on business, he caught a cold, which was not considered of much consequence till Sunday, the 10th, when he was compelled to remain in bed. Next day the physicians in attendance found him suffering from acute peritonitis. All that medical skill could do was done for the patient; but he sank rapidly and on Tuesday evening, the 12th, Father Tuesday evening, the 12th, Father Guillet, O. M. I., was called in and heard the dying doctor's confession. Meanwhile Father Drummond, who had been his spiritual director for many years, was sent for and at Rev. Father Guillet's request, administered Extreme Unction. Dr. Versailles, having always been a devout Catholic, full of faith and trust in God, met his sudden end with the calm and resignation of a true soldier of Christ. Not only was he fully conscious while receiving the last sad rites of the We advise all who can possibly do so to attend the concerts which take place at the St. Mary's Academy, on NotreDame street to-morrow and Friday evenings.
