- (d) co-operate in the administration of unemployment insurance and assistance and of other measures for the relief of the unemployed; and
- (e) assist, as necessary, other public and private bodies in social and economic planning calculated to ensure a favourable employment situation.

ARTICLE 7

Measures shall be taken—

- (a) to facilitate within the various employment offices specialisation by occupations and by industries, such as agriculture and any other branch of activity in which such specialisation may be useful; and
- (b) to meet adequately the needs of particular categories of applicants for employment, such as disabled persons.

ARTICLE 8

Special arrangements for juveniles shall be initiated and developed within the framework of the employment and vocational guidance services.

ARTICLE 9

1. The staff of the employment service shall be composed of public officials whose status and conditions of service are such that they are independent of changes of government and of improper external influences and, subject to the needs of the service, are assured of stability of employment.

2. Subject to any conditions for recruitment to the public service which may be prescribed by national laws or regulations, the staff of the employment service shall be recruited with sole regard to their qualifications for the performance of their duties.

3. The means of ascertaining such qualifications shall be determined by the competent authority.

4. The staff of the employment service shall be adequately trained for the performance of their duties.

ARTICLE 10

The employment service and other public authorities where appropriate shall, in co-operation with employers' and workers' organisations and other interested bodies, take all possible measures to encourage full use of employment service facilities by employers and workers on a voluntary basis.

ARTICLE 11

The competent authorities shall take the necessary measures to secure effective co-operation between the public employment service and private employment agencies not conducted with a view to profit.
