

37.4 million cubic metres for timber production (all assortments) respectively. Measures were drawn up by the associations with a view to stepping up the construction of year-round timber transport roads, using these to capacity, and the partial relocation of workers and machinery to enterprises with sufficiently large allowable cuts.

Lesnaya promyshlennost'

April 21, 1990

Page 1 (slightly abridged)