

TO AYLMER BOURKE LAMBERT, Esq.

F.R.S. F.A.S.

VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE LINNEAN SOCIETY.

SIR,

I AM conscious of offering but a small tribute of gratitude, when I beg to be permitted to inscribe the following pages with your name. Should they happily meet with approbation, the Public will have, in a great measure, to thank you for their existence; as, without the aid and assistance you so liberally afforded me, my own feeble exertions would have been inadequate to the performance of so important an undertaking.

Should the perusal of this work in any degree add to the pleasure you feel in
