

CONTENTS.

TAKING IMPRESSIONS OF THE MOUTH.

	PAGE
PRELIMINARY CONSIDERATIONS	7
Importance of a Correct Impression	7
Conditions of the Mouth.....	7
SELECTION OF THE TRAY	7
Shape and Size of First Importance.....	7
When Teeth Remain.....	8
Adjustable Trays	8
Adapting Trays to Special Cases.....	8
Porcelain Trays Objectionable.....	9
Tray leaving the Impression in the Mouth	9
A Temporary Expedient.....	9
SELECTION OF IMPRESSION MATERIAL	9
Necessary Properties.....	9
Various Materials.....	9
Their Relative Importance.....	9
DIFFICULTIES TO BE OVERCOME	11
Nausea and its Prevention.....	11
Insertion of the Tray	13
PREPARATION OF THE MOUTH	13
Impression of the Superior Jaw.....	13
Secure Proper Position of Tray.....	13
Imbed Ridge Completely.....	14
Must Cool before Withdrawal.....	14
How to Cool the Impression	14
Withdrawing Adherent Impression	15
Impression of Inferior Jaw.....	15
Pressure and Counter-pressure.....	15
MODELLING COMPOSITION	15
Composition and Qualities.....	15
Impressions of Irregular Teeth and Overhanging Ridge.....	15
Special Directions.	17
To Determine when to Remove from Mouth	17
To Remove from Tray	17
To Separate Model.....	17
PLASTER OF PARIS	17
Advantages.....	17
Expansion of Plaster.....	19
Factors which Control Setting.....	19
Preparatory to Mixing.....	19
Best Way to Mix.....	20