

place it was
 the north-
 ed at this
 re did not
 t appeared
 likely that
 met them,
 d not seem
 time, and
 ey did not
 ny ideas of
 out-casts of
 andering in
 elling being
 ly sufficient
 in these cli-
 on any one
 the rudest
 necessary to
 told, that
 h is seldom
 cies of con-
 have arisen
 ing of the
 uncultivated
 ed man puts
 be few; but
 en the most
 are scarcely
 hunger and
 yet the pro-
 nce for the
 an be happy
 se they have
 ow that there
 ight the phi-
 ainly simple
 e vegetative
 tless energy;
 nitable; but
 come to ex-
 them, with-
 s and reason
 ction, Whe-
 when we ob-
 which those
 ver dawned,
 of those arts
 hem into fo-
 the nations
 ights which
 igned to yield
 istributed in-
 European ty-
 ns, and dogs,
 is probable
 country, for
 resion of the
 ace of a bog,
 ermine. Not nglish black-
 ecks and other
 l fish, clams,
 ared had nei-
 ous or trou-
 s were found
 d celery and
 orbutic qua-
 to the crews
 is place, after undance near
 at the water-
 d it resembles
 mock. The
 dens in Eng-
 This plant
 and upon the
 between that
 an, long confined

General view.

London: Published by the "Hogarth" Engraving, No. 1, Pall Mall.

H. W. Smith.