

tem of instruction which is followed in Ontario. He is one whose life thus far has been devoted to the cause of education, and whose efforts have been a blessing to hundreds of young people. Any assistance, therefore, that you may be able to offer Mr. Montgomery in the prosecution of his investigations will be of service to the public as well as a personal favor to me.

(Subscription.)

Yours very truly,

Frank G. Carpenter.