

organization and plan of the Canadian work to the consideration of the Federal authorities and to our various state authorities in so far as it may be applicable to their conditions and not already in force."

This hearty endorsement of our policy by the leading veterinarians of this continent is very gratifying, especially when considered along with the movement now on foot in Great Britain to bring about the adoption of measures similar to those in force here.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. G. RUTHERFORD,

Veterinary Director-General and
Live Stock Commissioner.

The Honourable,
The Minister of Agriculture.
