

- ation, Amer-
40—1 (See
- of "invisible
services 38 n.; - ation in 224
ost-accounts
- in 131 n.;
- ten tradition
- company 537 n.
x P, 2; 651;
; their diffi-
- tion of 649
- ays, in Ger
its success in and evil of
- 15
, 752
diminishing 275
2 n. d" compared
- after French Acts 717 (See
- nce of Adam
Pitt and Peel
- n to British
- neral, on com-546 n., 572 n.; ate 553—4 n.;
nd rail cartels 664 n.
- J. S. Mill on
- nglis, and the 3 n.
rest 235
e faculty of
- ion 201; tene General 202,
- Passenger traffic, economy of time in British 453 (See Railways)
- Patents, and invention 244 n.; and law of Increasing Return 407; problem of tax on 421; in the tobacco industry 534—6; laws 536—7; in early times 714 n.
- Par Romana*, its influence on viability 668
- Par Cosmopolitana* 2
- Peel, his fiscal policy 82—4
- Periods, long and short in problems to value 185—8, 396—7; in relation of "special" and "general" costs 192, 456; and the interests of buyers and sellers 272—4; in railway problems 453—8
- Person, Prof., on cooperation of employees in scientific management 390 n.
- Petroleum, its by-products 239; a transport industry 770
- Petty, his great rule 33, 106, 112, 167;
on trade and heterodoxy 34 n.; his estimates of England's trade 38 n.; on labour of Seamen and Freights as exports 677
- "Physical valuation" of railways 827
- Physiocrats 725—7
- Piano manufacture, and German training in music 131 n.; and air pressure 212
- Piece-work wages, generally preferred
by employers 381; objections to 382;
standard rate of 382—3
- Pigon, Prof., and theory of monopolies 399 n.; and railways 449—50 n.
- Pitt, on England's foreign trade in 1798, 66 n.; his loans 78; his fiscal policy 80—2
- "Planning Department" 370—3 (See Scientific Management)
- Plunkett, Sir H., and restrictions on Irish industry 717—18
- Poinsard 114 n.
- Pollard 722 n.
- "Pooling" of railway traffic 488—9;
and wagons 489 n.; uses of term 511
- "Poor," Charles Booth's definition of 78
- Poor-law, increased the evils of early factory system 76; and the French Revolution 78
- Population, of England 684—5; and of her colonies compared 105; distribution of in U. K., Germany and France 126 n.; composition of American 149 n., 152 n., 158—9;
canals and decentralization of 502, 505
- Ports, increase in size of 433, 775;
remote from coast 687 n.
- Postal services, anomalies of 428 n.
- Potash, German monopoly of 126, 575
- Pottery Manufacturers' Association 604
- Powell, G. H. 797 n.
- Powers 760 n.
- Pratt 473 n.
- Preferential Rates (See Discrimination)
- Price II, 1; its relation to demand and supply 182—9; "which the market will bear" 404—5, 425, 794; maintenance of in particular markets 400—1; regulations 620—2
- Price, W. H., on early patents 62 n.
- Prime Cost* 181, 191; and normal
price 274; and "general" costs 191, 274, 413, 824—5; and cost-accounts of a business 367
- "Productive" industries 170
- Profit-sharing 840
- Profits, of small shopkeepers, how estimated 294 n.; of middleman 610 n.; in retail trade 794—5; rate of in early times 694
- Progress, and war 2; and the quality of life 5; dependent on freedom of initiative 174, 199, 249, 325, 645—6;
in relation to records and standards 199—202; influence of small businesses on 325, 525; and purchasing power 392—3, 408
- Promoter of companies, his functions and methods 329—36
- Property, in relation to distribution of wealth 659—60
- Protection, to English agriculture 81—5; in France 120; in relation to massive production 138—9; to combination 526, 530; and cartels 563—5, 632; in U. S. 157, 760—8;
its effect on wages 837 n.; and national prosperity 578; and mercantilism 707—8; in Venice and Spain 672—3; and Decreasing and Increasing Return 744—6; and localization of industry in U. S. 763; "educative" 761—4; in Germany 753—6, 835—7
- Prothero, R. E., 200 n., 690 n., 698 n.
- Prussia, her railway policy 447—8, 454, 478, 493 n.; her canals 500, 502 n.;
and wheat production 742 n.; and Germanization 753
- Psychology, its use in Advertising 307
- Publicity, in stock exchange transactions 336—7; obtained by Royal Commissions 473; gains from 634
- Publisher, services of 302 n.
- Purchasing power of money, in relation to wages 9, 385, 692—3, 721—2;