

BYE-LAWS.

---

ARTICLE I.—MEETINGS.

Each club shall meet for the transaction of business ~~on~~ evening of each week, or of every alternate week, unless adjourned for a longer time; but a special meeting may be called by the S O, (or the J O, in his absence,) on the written request of seven members.

ARTICLE II.—QUORUM.

Seven members shall constitute a quorum, but a less number may meet and adjourn.

ARTICLE III.—STANDING COMMITTEES.

Sect. 1. It shall be the duty of the S O, at the commencement of his term of office, to appoint three standing committees, of three members each: one on candidates for admission into the club; one on sickness; and one on finance; who shall serve three months.

Sect. 2. It shall be the duty of standing committee on candidates to receive all applications for admission, to investigate the character and fitness of all applicants, and to report to the club.

Sect. 3. The standing committee on sickness, or any member thereof, shall visit (as soon as practicable) sick members—shall see that watchers are provided, if necessary, and render such assistance as may be in their power; and all the members shall hold themselves in readiness to assist the sick and unfortunate.

Sect. 4. It shall be the duty of the committee on finance to examine and approve all bills before passing them to the treasurer.