COMPANY QUITE ABLE TO BUILD THE ROAD

Will Have a Man on the Spot in Next Few Days - Cataract Co. Still Has Troubles.

HAMILTON, July 12.—(Special.)—Since the Montreal Construction and Engineering Company opened correspondence with the city officials recently in regard to acquiring franchises and developing public services here, and particularly in regard to building the Hamilton-Gait Electric Railway, there has been doubt expressed in some quarters as to the financial standing and responsibility of the company.

Careful inquiry in the matter has developed the fact that the company, without question, a very solid concern, is abundantly able to carry out any and every project of a serious nature.

The company has developed the fact that the company, without question, a very solid concern, is abundantly able to carry out any and every project of a serious nature.

Streets Still Dark. The Cataract Company did not fully recover from the effects of yesterday's storm to-day, and owing to one of the street lighting circuits still being out of business, a large section of the city's streets were left in darkness to-night.

After eluding his pursuers for several hours early this morning, N. H. Lamont, said to be a married man, living at 222 Robinson street, was captured by the police and locked up on a serious charge preferred by a Mrs. Thompson, who lives at 167 Robert street.

The ladies of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Mt. Hamilton, gave a very successful lawn party to-night at the residence of Geo. Webb. About 80 people attended, and Mayor Lees addressed the gathering.

George Fox was this morning remanded for sentence until July 20 by Judge Monck, by whom Fox elected to be sentenced after pleading guilty in police court yesterday morning to the charge of stealing $25 from the Salvation Army company, by whom he was formerly employed as a collector.

Orangemen Had Good Time. With banners flying, drums beating and pipes, bagpipes and whistles still pouring forth their martial strains the various local lodges of Orangemen returned to the city to-night a little after ten o'clock, after their day's celebration in St. Catharines.

The local followers of King Billy state that they had a grand time in St. Catharines, and that the celebration there was one of the best held in this section of the country in years.

John C. Armstrong, who says his home is in Toronto, was arrested this evening by P.C. Armstrong on a charge of theft.

Scarboro Beach Concert. In addition to its many other attractions, Scarboro Beach has specially engaged the Band of the Royal Grenadiers, under the direction of Mr. John Waldron, to play both afternoon and evening.

The Morning World is delivered before breakfast to any address. The rate outside of Toronto is twenty-five cents per month. Phone M. 5308.

TOLL OF DEATH AT PORCUPINE

drowned. God knows how many perished in the flames. Little's story reminds one of an incident in the Johnstown flood. He says: "On Tuesday morning the wind freshened and about ten o'clock a man, faint and evidently frightened, came into South Porcupine to warn the people of the camp that a great horsehoe of flames many miles in extent was approaching from the southwest." And again: "At about 10 a man dashed out of the bush to say that a quarter of a mile away a box car containing a carload of dynamite was on fire."

Little's Despatch. Little's despatch reads in part: "Forest fires on Tuesday night wiped South Porcupine off the map, eliminating Pottsville, burned part of Ontario City, swept great part of the Porcupine mining district bare of camps and buildings, killed at least half a dozen men and perhaps ten times that number, and generally cleared the ground for a new deal all around."

The mines that have been damaged or have lost all of their buildings by the fire, are: The Dome, West Dome, North Dome, Apex, Vipond, Dome Extension, Pearl Lake, McIntyre, Hollinger, Foley-O'Brien, Success, Philosopher, Scottish-Ontario, Crown Charter, Eldorado and Imperial.

The bank proper was as follows: The Bank of Ottawa, Traders' Bank of Canada, Imperial Bank of Canada, Bank of Toronto, Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Traders' Bank of Canada.

All day Sunday the men of South Porcupine fought fire. On Monday the flames died down with the wind but from the high ground of the Dome or West Dome mines you could see the black smoke lazily rising up over the bush from away off Cripple Creek way.

On Tuesday morning the wind freshened and at about ten o'clock a man, faint and evidently frightened, came into South Porcupine to warn the people of the camp that a great horsehoe of flames many miles in extent was approaching from the southwest.

Half an hour later it looked as if the world were on fire and the women and children were sent across the lake to Golden City. By noon a gale was hurling in the flames at the rate of 60 miles an hour and soon after one o'clock no boats were running on Porcupine Lake on account of the gale.

At about 1.30 a man dashed out of the bush to say that a quarter of a mile away a box car containing half a carload of dynamite was on fire. Ten minutes later there was an explosion that knocked men off their pins. Every bit of glass in every building in South Porcupine was shattered.

The woods around were on fire and many were not accounted for. The town, which was blazing with a fury that was taking the roofs off all buildings directly toward the lake.

Many Drowned. By drowning in the lake, Porcupine Lake—William Moore, Armstrong-McGibben, Mirvin Strain, barber; Wm. Ogilvie and several foreigners went down in a canoe and have not been seen since. Women were swept into the lake by the waves to wash to either shore. Many are not accounted for.

North Toronto is destined to experience the greatest development that has come to any part of Toronto's close-in suburbs. The best class of people, lovers of quiet, beauty and home life, will gather in this beautiful section when North Toronto is taken into the city.

Brought with Broken Neck. James Miller, 46 years, a farm hand employed by F. S. Hartley, near North York, Ont., was brought to the General Hospital from the home last night with a broken neck. Miller, who is a single man and a Scotchman, had fallen from a hay rack last night. He cannot recover, and may live a day or two. He was accompanied from North York by Dr. Proctor.

THE PHOENIX Porcupine Will Rise From Its Ashes

THE DEMON FIRE has again visited Porcupine, leaving in its wake desolation and loss of life. We regret exceedingly to record these facts, but we desire to pay tribute to those hardy heroes who bravely fought the cruel flames until they dropped in their tracks and died as did the greatest martyrs of ancient times.

The fire has done its worst, but still the richness of the various mines remain untouched. In fact, this conflagration, in its ravages, has actually benefited the mines. It has completely cleared the surface of all obstacles, so that in future prospecting for new veins will be rendered an easy task.

A decided REACTION IN MARKET PRICES will probably follow the news of the wiping out of machinery and buildings on the following mines: DOME, WEST DOME, APEX, VIPOND, DOME EXTENSION, REA, PEARL LAKE, HOLLINGER, FOLEY-O'BRIEN, CROWN CHARTERED, ELDERADO AND IMPERIAL.

Nothing but the hand of man can remove the immense riches which lie buried beneath the surface in Porcupine. Buildings may go and so also machinery, and the greatest loss of all—HUMAN LIFE—but the mines still remain, and their intrinsic values unimpaired.

We are especially favorable to the purchase of: HOLLINGER DOME EXTENSION REA MINES PORCUPINE GOLD (Vipond) WEST DOME PEARL LAKE FOLEY-O'BRIEN PRESTON EAST DOME

To illustrate the unrivaled excellence of our news service, we received from our Special Correspondent in Porcupine the first and most complete reports of the disaster, and placed the same at the disposal of the Toronto newspapers. This service is always at their command, as well as our entire clientele. Our information can absolutely be depended upon at all times, both for investment and speculation.

Our Special Canadian Weekly Market Letter ready for distribution to-night. Write for it. We will be glad to execute orders for the purchase or sale of active, listed mining stocks, either for cash or on margin of 33-1-3 per cent, and will accept certificates when properly endorsed, as collateral margin against purchases.

EXPLODING DYNAMITE CUT OFF THEIR RETREAT

Continued From Page 1. Hanging on to logs or anything they could get hold of these men went into the lake with their horses, dogs and humped cattle, and there they stayed for more than three hours with the smoke so thick that they could not see their mates, with flames reaching out to scorch them and with live coals constantly falling upon their heads. At least four persons went under during the experience.

Meanwhile, in Pottsville, people were having narrow escapes, but there was only one death there. The fire is exactly what the writer of this has expected. Porcupine has been a fire trap. For miles around the woods had to be cleared out by a great raging wrath of the devil fire, such as we had yesterday, in order to be safe. We who have been in mining camps all our lives have known this, but have stuck to Porcupine at the very risk of our lives, because we thought the camp was good enough to warrant even that great risk. Now the camp is cleared out finally, new buildings can be put up with safety.

Fate of Weiss and King. In a brief despatch, Little tells of the death of Weiss and King. These men were friends, and the survivor of the trio appends the simple request: "Give newspapers my stories on Weiss and King. Let those stories be the obituary of my dead friends." Describing his last hours with Weiss, Little says: "On Monday I was on the West Dome talking with Weiss; I spoke of the fire danger that threatened and Weiss said: 'They will never burn the West Dome men here. We will lick any fire that comes in here.'"

Engineer Meeks Safe. The indomitable spirit of the prospector and pioneer is shown in the telegram which indicates that a new element is on the way to build a bigger and better Porcupine. "Engineer Meeks of Dome is alive," says one message, to be quickly followed by another: "Understand Meeks of Dome and some other engineers will start south to-day to refer new equipment."

James Miller, 46 years, a farm hand employed by F. S. Hartley, near North York, Ont., was brought to the General Hospital from the home last night with a broken neck. Miller, who is a single man and a Scotchman, had fallen from a hay rack last night. He cannot recover, and may live a day or two. He was accompanied from North York by Dr. Proctor.

MARKHAM HAS BIGGEST DAY IN ITS HISTORY

Five Thousand Orangemen Invade Old County Town and Capture It—A Gala Time.

MARKHAM VILLAGE, July 12.—(Special.)—The greatest celebration in the history of York County conducted under the auspices of the Orangemen or any other society, was that of to-day, when more than 5000 brethren gathered from all parts of the county here. Every elder and every concession contributed its quota to swell the throng, while a special train of twelve heavy loaded coaches from Beaverton brought the North Ontario men, and another of eleven coaches from Toronto the West York and North Toronto brethren.

The weather was ideal and every condition favorable and the brethren were charmed not alone by the beauty and thrill everywhere apparent, through the fine agricultural section, but by the splendid hospitality extended by the town of Markham. It was a gala day, all work being suspended, and the incoming lodges as they arrived were taken in charge and accorded the freedom and hospitality of the village. The railway arrangements too for handling the immense crowd were fairly satisfactory, especially on the return trip. Altogether it was the greatest day the old town of Markham ever saw and one long to be remembered.

The two local hotels were taxed to provide accommodation to the hungry throng, but they were ably supplemented by the Christian Church, which catered to an immense crowd in the large covered skating rink. There was no lack of provisions and the prediction made that the town would be cleaned out was not verified. Big as it was the throng hardly came up to the first and most complete reports of the disaster, and placed the same at the disposal of the Toronto newspapers.

Returning to the grounds after the parade, short, stirring addresses were given by Major Sharp, M.P., North Ontario; W. H. Hoyte, M.L.A., North Ontario; Capt. Tom Wallace, M.P., and Dr. Godfrey, M.L.A.

The address of Major Sharp, M.P., was clear and incisive, dealing specifically with the Ne Temere decree, and elected round after round of applause. Porcupine, the Roman Catholic priest, at the instance of the Pope, enters the family circle and separates husband and wife, it is time for the Protestants to sit up and take notice," was one of the clear-cut statements of Major Sharp. He also paid his respects to Sir James Whitney and charged that the time for bilingual schools in Ontario had passed and that English alone must be taught.

An exciting program of sports was carried out at the close of the orations by an energetic committee. Bro. Newberry Button of Ringwood was on the grounds and received the congratulations of a host of friends. Bro. Button is 46 years of age and has been in the ranks for 71 years. He is one of the Supreme Grand Lodge members and a contemporary of Sir Macdonald-Bowell.

Bro. Plunkett of Woodbridge Lodge, a veteran of years and years, walked in the parade—that is, he rode in Dr. Godfrey's auto. Bro. George Syme of "Tory Glen" also took the easy road to fame.

R. G. McCormick and Police Magistrate Ellis are a good-looking team, and they enjoyed every hour of the day. County Master W. J. Douglas did not contain service and, say, wasn't proud of the boys, and especially of that citizens' band.

Bro. William Bailey, acting master of Hamilton L.O.L., presented Bro. Arthur Williams with a past master's jewel, and His Worship Bro. A. J. Brown added a few kindly words. Did anybody ever see a better dressed or behaved crowd? Marchant has yet to see another one like it.

By the way, that was a mighty nice address of welcome that Heave Teft read, and he did the town credit in his words of welcome and open-handed hospitality.

The town was handsomely decorated, but it was worth all the trouble. Capt. Tom Wallace's troop of little boys was one of the features of the day. Who gets the award for the best dressed lodge? It looks as the McCormick ought to about land it. The ladies almost outnumbered the men. Markham, you did all right!

MAYOR FOR ANNEXATION. Mayor Geary is back and, while not anxious to talk on civic matters until he has got into better touch after his absence at the coronation, told The World that he believed the annexation of North Toronto necessary, because of racial complications. He was inclined to think the expro-
