6 fact that the price fixed is inadequate for the paper supplied in April, while in fixing a new price for the next three months the commission will be asked to take into account the increase in wages awarded to the paper mill operatives by the war labor board, which has been made retroactive to May 1, and the 25 per cent. increase May 1, and the 25 per cell, in freight rates recently inaugurated by the United States Government railroad administration, which, together, are said to have added between $5 and $7 a ton to the cost of producing paper. The war labor board adjust the price of paper on the basis of the new wage scale.

The federal trade commission's authority to fix the price of paper covers the period of the war and three months thereafter, but the commission has announced that any price fixed would be subject to revision on a proper showing.

It is understood that the present action of the manufacturers is preliminary to an appeal to the "United States circuit judges of New York if the results obtained are unsatisfac-
