AMNESTY.

THE LATE ARCHBISHOP. London, Oct. 15 .- The body of the Most Rev. Edward White Benson, Archbishop of Canterbury, arrived in Canterbury, accompanied by the family of the dead Primate. Immense crowds had gathered about the station, and the streets through which the cortege passed on its way to the cathedral were lined with people, who stood with bared heads as the body was borne past. Shortly after the arrival of the procession at the cathedral, where the body will lie in state, there was celebrated a solemn service for the dead.

TURKEY. London, Oct. 15 .- Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking at Darlington, declared that the actual position of the powers with regard to the eastern question was that Russia, Austria and Ger-many were determined, with a view to preserving European peace, to maintain the status quo in Turkey. That had been England's traditional policy, he said, and any departure from it would meet with active resistance by the powers. At the same time absolute inaction was more dangerous to the peace of Europe than would be united interference by the powers to compel Turkish referm. England's present policy, the Chancellor of the Exchequer affirmed, was to secure a concert of the powers to insist emphatically that the Government did not desire to act alone,

If such was the case perhaps it is a noble ambition to have a return of that condition and make the St. Lawrence route the most popular. (Cheers.) One thing I know well, be-cause every one who knows the geography of the country knows that by natural laws the St. Lawence route was intended by the hand of God himself to be the greatest artery of the continent of North America. (Cheers.) This is the one object I would impress on you as being the wish of the Government to achieve. It has been proved that by the deepening of the canals the trade of Canada and of the west as well will come this way. The mo-ment the St. Lawrence canals have been deepened all the products of the great Western States beyond the Mississippi must come to the seashore by way of the St. Lawrence. (Cheers.) We will endeavor, whether our administra-tion be long or short, to show that the ideas are carried to a practical issue.
