H. Harding of Local Y.M.C.A. Has Wonderful War Record -Holds Medals and Bars and Was Wounded at Courcelette.

Harding, caretaker of the loca'l Y. M. C. A., follows civil pursuits, but when the British Empire goes to war, he goes too. For twelve years in succession he served in the imperial army. Mr Harding was 18 years of age when he enlisted with the 2nd Battalion of the Rifle Brigade. Four years later he was marching under General Kitchener to the relief of General Gordon at Khartoum. After serving five months there, during which time some heavy fighting occurred, he left Egypt. As recognition of his service during this campaign he received the Khediwe's medal cles in this district under the direction of Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, A. A. G., Military District No. 1. This campaign is fully recommended to the soldiers by the headquarters staff. In the orders of the day issued, the officer commanding commends the cams follows: G. M. Reid, Chairman.

G. M. Reid, Chairman.

"George M. Reid, president of the London Chamber of Commerce, has undertaken the chairmanship for the Red Triangle Campaign for the city of London, which takes place on the 5th and continues until the 9th of May. Mr. Reid has already organized the canvass among the business and professional men of the city, and has undertaken to cover with individual canvassers the whole field with the exception of those on military duty. He has asked me to undertake the organization necessary for this campaign through district headquarters, military hospitals and military units in the district.
