VILLE AT THE GRAND TODAY.

A heroine of an entirely new type is portrayed by Dorothy Dalton in her latest photoplay. "The Market of Souls," which will be on view at the Grand today, tomorrow and Wednesday. Miss Dalton plays the part of a girl from upstate New York who has been trained as a nurse and comes to live with friends in New York City. An added feature of the bill will be a Paramount comedy entitled "Hoodooed," featuring Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven. Other film features will be Topics of the Day and the Pathe Review.

The headline attraction on the vaudeville bill will be "Leave It to George," a frolicksome musical farce with a cast of eight people. One of the most delightful bits of entertainment will be offered by Grey and Old Rose, who will be seen in a sparkling song and dance oddity. The Bernivici Brothers in a musical novelty; Van and Yorke, singing comedians, and Valmore, the extraordinary mimic, will be the other attractions.
