Page of Interest to Women

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris of Chicago, formerly of London, are guests with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McBride.

Mrs. May R. Thornley is in Toronto attending a meeting called for the purpose of uniting the W. C. T. U. publications of Canada.

A number of delightful evening tea parties have been arranged to be held at the "Shriners' Circus" team in the Masonic Temple this week.

Miss Joan Arnold, who was the guest of Mrs. E. B. Smith "Tully", during her visit in the city, left yesterday afternoon for her home in Toronto.

Mrs. Elliott N. Ballantyne, formerly Miss Hovena Clarke, will receive for the first time since her marriage at her home, 153 Wortley road, on Thursday afternoon, November 25, and afterwards on the first Thursday of the month.

Mrs. Lindsay and Miss Wallace of Stratford have been much-feted guests during their visit in town with their sister, Mrs. Thomas Mortimore. Mrs. Mortimore entertained in their honor at the tea hour on Wednesday.

Mrs. Kenneth C. Greene, formerly Miss Sara Birely of Hamilton, will receive for the first time since her marriage on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 23, at her home, 78 Weston avenue. Mrs. Edward Birely of Hamilton is a guest with her daughter.

December 10 seems to be the big dance night of the year, for then the "Charity Ball" is to be held in the Winter Garden and on that evening, too, the Western University will hold its biggest function of the year, the ever-popular Rugby dance at the Western University gym.

Mr. Walter Hampden, the distinguished Shakespearean actor, who will play "Shylock" in London, November 22, has been invited to be the guest of the London Drama League at an afternoon reception to be held in his honor. It is probable that the Western University will join the Drama League in entertaining him.

The home of Mrs. E. J. Dawson, Duchess avenue, was artistically decked with chrysanthemums yesterday afternoon, when Miss Marjorie Dawson received with her mother for the first time this season. Mrs. Dawson was wearing a handsome gown of black silk with lace trimmings and carrying a pink rose, while Miss Marjorie Dawson received the many arriving guests in a pretty green tulle gown with touches of gold, gold slippers and carrying a huge armful of golden mums. Miss Dawson was wearing a corsage of Opheelia roses, and carrying a bouquet of yellow mums, which were given her by her mother.

Mr. Jack Dyer has been selected to represent the Western Medical Society at the annual Queen's University dance, to be held in Kingston in the near future. The selection was made at a meeting of the student body of the Western University Medical School, held in the above institution on Wednesday night. Mr. Jack Dyer is a member of the freshmen class. The Queen's dance is attended yearly by a number of students from Western, and the significance of Dyer's appointment lies in the fact that he is not a senior, they being in the minority, with the influx of large soldier junior classes.

During the meeting the Meads had a peep into their new song book, which contained all the school and class songs under the name of "Standard Hymnal". It has gained a large circulation in the school. Several of the members were rehearsed with Dr. Bernard McDougall, a recent graduate, and author of several "Hymns," leading the choristers. The book was published under the auspices of Meads '23, who provided a piano for the rehearsal.

This rehearsal is in preparation for a theatre party to be staged by the student body in December, when the performance will be enlivened by school songs and yells. President James McGeech directed the meeting.

MOORE-ARNOLD.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Arnold, 320 Ashland avenue, was the scene of a pretty home wedding at 1 o'clock on Wednesday, November 11, when their youngest daughter Dorothy became the bride of Mr. Archibald Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moore, 122 Clarence street.

The bride, with her attendants, entered the parlor to the strains of "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, played by Mr. Howard Vine of Parkhill, and took her place beside the groom beneath an arch of evergreens and pom-poms, from the centre of which hung the huge wedding bells.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. T. Ferguson in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, looking lovely in a gown of pale blue georgette crepe with convolvulus veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a sheaf of bridal roses, was attended by Miss Laura Atner, a bridesmaid in a gown of dark blue georgette crepe made with accordion-pleated skirt. Little Miss Anna Moore made a charming flower girl, and Master Howard Arnold, small brother of the bride, carried the ring, which rested on a white satin cushion.

Mr. John Leigh of Copetown supported the groom, and during the signing of the register Mr. T. A. Arnold of Galt sang very sweetly "When You Are Truly Mine," after which the guests to the number of about fifty sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast served by girl friends of the bride.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl-handled manicure set; to the bridesmaid and soloist a gold watch; to the best man and pianist gold handkerchiefs, and to the flower girl and ringbearer gold rings.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, showing the esteem in which these young people are held.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Rawlings and her son Billy of Toronto; Mrs. Leigh of Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Arnold and baby of Galt; Mrs. Tembrock of Merritt; Mr. John Leigh of Copetown and Mrs. Cecil Denning; Mrs. W. J. Moore, Miss Grace Jackson and the Misses Babe and Beryl Beckett, all of Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore left in the evening, amidst a shower of confetti and good wishes, for Toronto, where they will reside.

GERMAN-SCHOFIELD.
A wedding of interest to the whole of London was that which took place on Wednesday, when Miss Dorothy Schofield, daughter of the late Charles John Schofield and Mrs. Schofield, of Little Heath, Southwick, Sussex, England, and for some time past governess to Lady Anne Cavendish, youngest daughter of the Governor-General and the Duchess of Devonshire, became the bride of Mr. Barry P. German, son of Mr. W. M. German, ex-M. P. of Welland, Ont., and Mrs. German.

The members of the Rideau Hall household, and immediate relatives were in attendance.

Lord Richard Neville gave the bride in marriage, and she was attended by Lady Anne Cavendish, and by Miss Barbara Rolph of Port Colborne, a niece of the groom, as bridesmaids. Mr. Allan German of Toronto, a brother, was best man. The Vicar-General officiated.

The bride gown was a lovely creation of ivory white crepe netting lined with flesh pink georgette, which gave a pretty shimmering effect. The design was in simple lines with straight cut panels at the back and front. The court train of crepe netting was lined with palest pink georgette, of which the underdress was also made. A circle of orange blossoms at the waist and clusters of orange blossoms on the shoulders added artistic touches. The long tulle veil was surmounted with a coronet of orange blossoms, and a bouquet of Opheelia roses and white orchids was carried.

The bride was very pretty in frilled frock of white organdy. Lady Anne wearing a mauve ribbon sash and Miss Rolph a pink one. Wreaths of mauve and pink berries were worn in the hair, and each carried a Victorian bouquet of violets and Sweetheart roses. Each little lady was the recipient of a gold hand bracelet as a gift of the groom.

Immediately following the church ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, the Hon. Mrs. German, where the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, her excellency wearing a handsome gown of black georgette, the skirt befrilled, the front of the bodice and the sleeves finished with wide ruffles, a corsage of violets was worn. Lady Rachel Cavendish wore a pretty dress of silk tricotine of a biscuit color and a large brown velvet hat. Miss Saunders wore a dress of blue silk and a large navy blue hat.

Mr. and Mrs. German have left on a wedding trip, following which they will live in Ottawa.

Among the bride's relatives present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. German, Mr. and Mrs. John Rolph of Port Colborne, Miss Macdonell of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Macdonell of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Angus German, Mr. Allan German and Mrs. Jack German, all of Toronto.

VICTORIAN NURSES MAKE 554 VISITS DURING OCTOBER
Ontario Branches To Be Managed From Toronto.

Owing to the increased work of the Victorian Order of Nurses throughout the whole Dominion and to the very different conditions existing in each province, the board of governors at Ottawa have decided to take steps to have the charter changed, so that each province may have its own organization, and thus in a better way meet the conditions peculiar to it.

A meeting to plan for this was held in Toronto on Nov. 4, delegates being sent from each of the branches. Mr. H. Blackburn and Mrs. Traversa representing the London branch.

At a meeting of the local order, held Thursday morning, Mrs. Blackburn gave a report of the Toronto meeting to deal with the change, which would shortly become operative.

At this meeting a relief committee was formed, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. S. Niven, to deal with emergency cases. The board of management, Mrs. Wilson, the head nurse, members of the board of management are holding themselves ready to respond to any call from Mrs. Niven.

MOORE WOMAN'S INSTITUTE.
On Wednesday, November 11, a Women's Institute was organized at Moore Township Hall by Mrs. J. McLennan, and Mrs. W. J. Moore, of Moore Township. The society has eleven charter members. Mrs. J. McLennan, the head nurse, is secretary-treasurer. The first meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. McLennan on Wednesday, December 1, when members of the Colville Institute will be present to assist with the program.

A concert under the auspices of the "Women's Missionary Society of Bear Creek Presbyterian Church" will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 22, when the entertainment will be provided by Mrs. Carrie, tenant of St. Thomas, Miss Cora Shannon of Cornwall, Rev. Mr. Penland and Rev. Mr. Richardson of Brantford.

SALEM W. I.
A special meeting of the Salem Women's Institute, held at the home of the president, Mrs. John Jackson, on Nov. 18, Mrs. W. J. Moore, of Moore Township, was present and gave a splendid address on "Institutional Work." Several members of Belmont and Dorchester were also present. At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. S. Walker on December 8.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

If love could learn how soon life finds its measure,
How soon and swift its hours when all is told,
Each kiss and tender word 'twould count and treasure,
As misers count their gold.

—Vivian Sheard.

Attention, Lols.
Dear Miss Grey—Received S.F.P. also apron pattern. Many thanks. Returning same, also sending some stamps for S. F. P.

I saw a request some time ago for a song and music. "Hang Up the Baby's Stocking." My address is with Miss Grey if Lols would like to send, kindly send postage for same and return after Christmas. I enjoyed "Wannam" very much. Would like to meet her, or would it seem too much as if she was seeking his company?

BUD'S SISTER.
Three cups flour, two and a half teaspoons baking powder, white of egg (beaten stiff), one cup white sugar, one of small raisins, half cup butter and lard mixed, one cup sweet milk; bake on three plates; rub yolk of egg over top just before putting into oven.

Ans.—Thanks for the stamps and recitation, Happy Mother.

Fruit Scones.
Dear Cynthia—I have been a silent reader of the Mail-Box for a number of years and now think I would like to enter the charmed circle, for, like a great many other people, I would appreciate a little help. I am enclosing a time for the S. C. H., also a recipe for scones, which is excellent.

1. When a girl receives a letter from a young man who is just a real good friend, how long should she wait before answering it?

2. Should she always at the end of each letter ask him to write again, as he always does so in his letter to her, or would it seem too much as if she was seeking his company?

Ans.—1. A week or ten days is the general length of time taken to answer correspondence of this nature.
2. Yes, if you wish him to write again you might mention the fact. Thanks for dime and recipe.
