RETURNS COME IN

Captains of Committees Announce Amounts Collected Amid Fine Enthusiasm.

Spontaneous and vigorous applause turned man who was not acquainted with the work, the mayor replied: "Why, there are lots of returned men coulected as we result of the morning's work yesterday by the pairmofic fund and Red Orcss campaiers. Major Dinnick made the ennouncement at the noon lancheon at shead-quarters, 15 East King Merret, and the amount totaled was $947.275.

The men captains and their teams to the number of four hundred (and fifty, assembled at the luncheon, and the buzz and bustle of the atmosphere spoke of the lively spirit of all taking part. At the head table were Sir William Mulock, Sir Herbert Ame, president of the Canadian Fatriotic Fund, Mr. Justice Sutherland, Mrs. Prumptre and Mrs Graham Thompson. Separate tables were provided for the different teams, which were presided over by the captains, everyone wearing his official blue and gold badge, and every man, at table paid the war-time thrifty sum of forty cents for his luncheon.

The after-lunch speeches were brief and to the point. Introduced by Sir William Mulock, the first speaker was Sir Herbert Ames, who to'd of peing asked away off in British Columbia, how he could give so much of his time to patriotic work, and of his reply: "I wouldn't exchange the last two and a half years for all the rest of my life put together." Talk of being called on to give time, said Sir Herbert, we are all called on for sacrifice and service. Toronto is being watched all over Canada. Homiltongot ahead of you last week, and next week there will be Ottawa and other cities. Then good old Montreal with its ear to the ground—all will come in, all will do their share."

Campaign Figures.

Major Dinnick gave some figures.

There are 15,000 men in the campaign.

Twenty-five thousand cards had already been distributed, and requests for more had already been received. Some very brief but necessived. sary instructions regarding the plan of work were given by J. E. Atkinson before the captains were called upon to report on the amounts collected. The moment was a proud one for captain angaged for in every every captain engaged, for in every instance the figures represented juite easily be excused for feeling committee Reports.

Captain Auld's name was called, and the response xeas $18,500. When the cheers had subsided, the name of Captain Burritt was heard, and this time the amount was $21,250 Next carte Captain Cox with the fine total of $22,300. And so the encouraging care Captain Cox with the line total of $32,300. And so the encouraging litany continued. Then came the total from the Rotary Club, $26,370: the women's committee, announced by Mrs. Plumptre, $18,500. The gift from the city of $500,000 was cheered to the echo. The largest individual of the echo. the echo. The largest individual offering was from Controller O'Neill, the amount not yet announced. And so the good work went on, and everycan left the table feeling that the obtaining of the full amount desired before the end of the week was an assured thing for Toronto.

Assessment Commissioner Forman Wants Civilian Made Assistant Assessor.

Trouble is brewing between Mayor Church and Assessment Commissioner Forman over the appointment of an assistant assessor. The commissioner has recommended C. A. Boush, who has been in the department as clerk for more than five years, for the position, and the mayor demands that a returned soldier be appointed.

"I take the stand that returned men should get all the positions possible in the city hall," said the mayor.

Asked whether in view of the numerous complaints that the department was not properly manned, it was advisable to place in the position a returned man who was not acquainted with the work, the mayor replied: "Why, there are lots of returned men

Whitby to Orillia Asylum

Preparations have been completed for the transfer of patients from Whitby to the insane asylum at Orillia to make room for the returned soldiers at Whitby. Inspector of Prisons and Asylums Dunlop was at Whitby on Monday, but owing to the weather conditions it was impossible to remove patients. They are now ready to move on short notice.

Mr. Dunlop is going to Orillia to see that all is in order for the reception of the 127 patients and twelve nurses who will be there before the end of the month.
