"LITTLE BOY" BANDIT IS

SENTENCED IN HULL

Ottawa, June 28.—Described as a "dangerous criminal," a little boy, eleven years of age, was sentenced by this morning to serve two years in the reformatory. The meskness appeared to be written all over the youngster's face he had virtually terrorized the town of Buckinghom for the last month by pulling off daring robberles and burglaries.

Referring to the anniversary of the signing of the treaty of Versailles, the chancellor continued:

"More particularly, Germany must honestly and without reserve fulfil her engagements to reduce the army to effectives necessary to maintain internal orders and police the frontiers. Germany must also fulfil the other measures of disarmament, and devote herself to the work of reparations loyally and unreservedly.

"If Germany has not fulfiled literally all the clauses of the treaty, it is due not to bad faith, but to circumstances stronger than our good faith, among which is the deep distrust, which continues towards Germany among our adversaries. It will be the duty of this government, with the proofs in hand, to show the Spa conference all that Germany has already done to fulfill its obligations under the Versailles treaty."
