Whitefield.—The late Mr. Whitefield in a sermon he preached at Haworth (for Mr. Grimshaw), having spoken severely of those professors of the gospel who, by their loose and evil conduct, caused the ways of truth to be evil spoken of, intimated his hope that it was not necessary to enlarge much upon that topic to the congregation before him, who had so long enjoyed the benefit of an able and faithful preacher, and he was willing to believe that their profiting appeared to all men. This roused Mr. Grimshaw's spirit, and notwithstanding the great regard he had for the preacher, he stood up and interrupted him, saying, with a loud voice, "Oh, sir! for God's sake do not speak so; I pray you, do not flatter them; I fear the greater part of them are going to hell with their eyes open."

Perseverance.—Two negroes at the South, who had just been to hear an eloquent pulpit discourse, were conversing together respecting it, when one remarked that he could "no understand." The other replied that he understood all but one word. "What dat?" "Perseverance!" "Oh, me tell you what dat mean; it mean, take right hold, hold fast, hang on, and no let go."
