November Sessions of Four Local I.O.D.E. Chapters Held

Four of the I.O.D.E. chapters held November meetings yesterday and heard excellent reports of educational, philanthropic and patriotic work.

BRUNSWICK CHAPTER.

Brunswick Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Herbert Wetmore, Lancaster Heights, with the regent, Mrs. J. William Hart, presiding and 38 members present. The educational committee reported that all the banners commemorating Canadian victories had been sent to Albert School to be hung on Armistice Day and to that school a complete set of Den's history had been sent, while the two volumes latest from the press would be sent to La Four School to complete the set given in the spring.

The relief committee reported a sick mother had been placed in hospital and her children put in the shelter of the Children's Aid home. The chapter voted to give $25 to the Carlton branch B. E. S. L. for Poppy Day and accepted that branch's invitation to attend Armistice Day service in St. Jude's church at 11 a.m. on Nov. 7. It was decided to invite the members of the disbanded Windsor Chapter, I. O. D. E., to join with Brunswick Chapter. Reports of the recent Halloween tea and sale were very gratifying. An editorial on the admission of Germany into the League of Nations was read at the meeting by Mrs. Arthur Coster and much appreciated. The hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. W. J. Wetmore, Mrs. Herbert Mayes and Mrs. Herbert Wetmore.

LOYALIST CHAPTER.

Loyalist Chapter meeting which was very largely attended was held at the residence of Mrs. Guy Pittsford at Randolph with Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, regent, presiding. Arrangements were made for holding a pantry sale on Dec. 11 and a special committee was appointed to have charge.

Miss Jennie Robb tells of work in Far Away Korea. Miss Jennie Robb, who is the missionary of St. David's United church and has spent 23 years in Korea, gave splendid addresses on her work before two meetings yesterday. In the afternoon she spoke before the Dorcas meeting of St. John's (Stone) church W. A., and in the evening addressed Centenary W. M. S. In the afternoon Mrs. George Murray, the president, was in the chair. Miss Robb described the changes which have taken place in Korea in 23 years, referring to the bloodless uprising of 1919 of which the missionaries although entirely innocent had been held to be the cause. The Koreans, she described, as a gentle, kindly people, who desired only to become a self-ruling nation. She described their customs and their

of the giving of an entertainment for the soldiers in the Lancaster hospital in January. The chapter decided to contribute its share towards the education of a boy and made arrangements for sending an I. O. D. E. library to a school at Caverhill, York county. It also planned to give a copy of the "Ancient Map of Fairy Land" to the children's room at the Public Library. Members were requested to attend the Armistice Day service in King Square. Delegates were appointed to attend the provincial semi-annual meeting in Sackville.

ROYAL ARMS CHAPTER.

Royal Arms Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Hagerman, Wentworth street, with the vice-regent, Mrs. R. W. Wigmore, presiding in the absence of the regent, Mrs. Norman Gregory. The chapter decided to contribute its share of the cost of aiding a boy in securing education. Preliminary plans were made for holding the annual tea and sale in the Church of England Institute either in the last week of this month or the first week in December. Arrangements were also made for the decoration of the soldiers' graves in Fenshild Cemetery and for attendance at the I. O. D. E. memorial service in front of the monument in King Square. The meeting was well attended.

SEVEN SEAS CHAPTER.

Seven Seas Chapter met at the home of Mrs. W. A. MacDougall, 354 Douglas avenue, with the regent, Mrs. Everett Hunt, presiding. Plans were completed for the tea and sale which will be held next week and it was decided to provide an entertainment for the soldiers in the Lancaster hospital. The chapter undertook to contribute towards helping a young boy obtain schooling. Members handed in sewing for the Victorian Order of Nurses supplies. The meeting was well attended.

homes, and exhibited miniature costumes, while she told of the marriage customs, how the Koreans ate and other facts of their daily life. It was only in 1883 that Protestant missionaries were first allowed to enter Korea and today there are 300,000 Protestant Christians among a population which is as great as that of all Canada. At the evening meeting in Centenary church the program included also a vocal solo by Miss Audrey Rankine and a reading by Miss Muriel Kirk.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

Miss Edna Dempsey was hostess at most enjoyable Halloween party at the home of her sister, Mrs. P. M. Butler, 47 Guilford street, West Saint John, last night when she entertained about 25 of her friends. Appropriate games and amusements were indulged in and the evening was very happily spent. The rooms were nicely decorated in Halloween colors and novelties. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Social Notes

Mrs. Lloyd C. Ryan entertained at a charmingly arranged bridge on Saturday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. James S. Gibson, in Douglas avenue. Halloween decorations were artistically used and the rooms presented a most attractive appearance. Bridge was played at six tables and the fortunate prize winners were Miss Winifred Blair, Miss Gladys Price and Miss Alice Young. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Ethel Day, Mrs. Jack Scammell and Miss Gladys Gibson. Those present were Mrs. Helley Wilson, Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. Kellie Wilson, Mrs. Murray Nixon, Mrs. Charles M. Second, Mrs. Arthur Clark, Mrs. Arnold Gibson, Mrs. Jack Scammell, Mrs. Leonard Rudolph, Miss Winifred Blair, Miss Jean Blair, Miss Gloria Logie, Miss Lorene Evans, Miss Edith Peterson, Miss Marion Brown, Miss Marion Belding, Miss Alex Rogers, Miss Jean Knight, Miss Leslie Green, Miss Margaret Green, Miss Gladys Price, Miss Alice Young, Miss Ethel Day, Miss Helen Trearman and Miss Gladys Gibson.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. J. MacDonald, 308 Princess street, were the guests of honor on Friday evening when a number of friends called at their home in honor of the most happy wedding anniversary. Cards and dancing were enjoyed and the prizes were won by Miss Annie Logan, ladies' first; Mr. Charles Mulholland, gentlemen's first, and Miss Gertrude Byrne, consolation. At midnight a delicious buffet luncheon was served, after which the dancing was continued.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

Mrs. F. V. Wedderburn of Hampton, was hostess recently at an enjoyable bridge. Those present were Mrs. Frederick Harding, Mrs. Wetmore Morris, Mrs. C. Gordon Lawrence, Miss Blanche Whitehead, Saint John, Mrs. F. H. Wetmore, Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. P. M. Butler, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. G. Hallett, Miss Minnie Travis, Miss Rose Ritchie, Miss Pauline Beard. Prizes were won by Miss Travis.

Montreal Gazette: "The ball given by Mrs. Percy P. Cowans for her suburban daughter, Miss Ruth Cowans, at the Mount Royal Hotel on Friday night was one of the most elaborate and pleasureable private functions ever held in Montreal, and for the 850 guests present the night passed in a delightful fashion. The guests were received by Mrs. Cowans, wearing a handsome gown of rose velvet embroidered in rose crystals and sequins, and by Miss Ruth Cowans, who wore a frock of white chiffon made with straight lines, with gores of chiffon on the skirt, which was edged with flat white ostrich feathers."

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bates, Long Creek, was the scene of a beautifully arranged novelty shower in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Clarence E. Davis, who was recently the bride of a happy event. The home was decorated for the occasion. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiley, of Saint John, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keith, in Havelock, N. B.

Mrs. Philip Palmer left Hampton recently for Saint John, where she will spend the winter.

Forbes Hallett, of Halifax, N. S., is spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hallett, in Hampton.

Mrs. Charles E. Cameron and child, 101 Victoria street, returned yesterday from Malden, Mass., where they had been visiting Mrs. Cameron's mother, Mrs. A. Watters and Miss Watters.

Miss Lillian B. White, of this city, and the Misses Bessie and Edie MacLellan, of St. George, left on Saturday night on the Governor Dingley en route to Needham, Mass., where they are to be the guests of Miss White's sister, Mrs. G. Arthur Shaw.

Miss Evelyn London left on Saturday evening on the S. S. Governor Dingley for Boston, where she will remain for the winter.

Philathea Class Halloween Party Held in North End. A very pleasant Halloween party was held last night at the residence of Mrs. E. R. MacWilliam, Victoria street, by the girls of the Philathea Class of the Victoria street Baptist church. The girls were in costume and prizes were given for the two best impersonations. The judges were Mrs. E. C. Flewelling and Mrs. MacWilliam and the prize winners were Miss Ethel Sharp and Miss Ruth Calhoun. The guests and the characters they represented were: Miss Ethel Jones, Indian Princess; Miss Calhoun, rooster; Miss Mabel Jones, modern chick; Mrs. Flower, cat's meow; Miss Miss Campbell, gypsy; Mrs. Howe, Turkey; Mrs. McLennan, Chinese; Mrs. Gordon Perry, Black Prince; Miss Mary Mowry, bat; Miss Elizabeth Mowry, witch; Miss Sherry, queen; Miss Clitick, jester; Miss Irene Patterson, clown; Mrs. W. FIRST RETURNS. The first returns from the New Brunswick Red Cross Society membership campaign came to the provincial headquarters yesterday when we received from the Harland branch, a gratifying large sum. Miss Ethel Hazzard, president, who was reported having received a number of donations to the funds from various provincial centres, and the sum of $67 as a donation from the Rothery Red Cross Society. This sum was realized at a recent tea and the branch has yet to send in membership returns. It is hoped to have $10,000 in membership fees for carrying on work throughout the coming year.

Weddings

Withrow-Burton. At the Queen Square United Church parsonage, last evening, Rev. H. C. Rice, pastor, united in marriage Miss Ethel S. Burton and Dr. Ralph H. Withrow, both of Springfield, N.S. They were unattended. They left this morning by motor for Springfield, where the groom enjoys a large practice. Many friends will extend best wishes.

A Halloween masquerade party and entertainment was held in the Temperance Hall, Cambridge, N. B., on Sunday evening by the Junior Red Cross branch, "The Gleaming Stars" of Narrow school, under the supervision of the director and teacher of the school, Miss Evelyn Smith, who was dressed as "Old Wild and Am". A large crowd was present and a goodly sum was raised which goes for Red Cross purposes. This is a new branch organized during the past summer by the teacher of that place. Halloween novelties, with Jack-o'-lanterns, witches and black cats were much in evidence. The costumes were varied, being novel, and attractive. The prize for most fancy ladies' costume went to Miss Nellie McKinley, of White's Cove, Grand Lake, and for best in gentlemen's costume to Gordon McKinley, of White's Cove. For the most original, Mrs. Akerley of The Narrows, dressed as a Chinaman, and Raymond Belyea carried off the prize for the most original. The judges were Mrs. Fred Belyea, Mrs. Victor Robinson and Duncan Morrison. During an interval a ghost told fortunes which afforded much amusement. After the judging of the costumes a social program was put on by the Red Cross members consisting of songs, recitations and dialogue, each appearing in masquerade. At the close of the program daily refreshments were served to all present, then Halloween games were enjoyed until 11 o'clock when the gathering broke up after a very pleasant evening.

MARKING OF JENNY'S SPRING IS FAVORED

Women's Institute Opposes Move to Bring Water to the Surface. That "Jenny's Spring" near Cranston avenue had been named not after William Collett's "little maid," but after the old woman who had sold its waters, was stated at the meeting of the Saint John Women's Institute held last evening in the Health Centre with Mrs. T. N. Vincent, president, in the chair. The institute was greatly in favor of having the site of the spring marked but distinctly opposed to any attempt to bring the water to the surface again. The meeting was largely attended and the program was of great interest. The members responded to the roll call by presenting a jar of jelly or preserves and these were left with the president to dispose of. The hundred's committee asked the members to submit original designs for a hooked mat as the institute will enter a mat in the W. L. section at the fall exhibition. The colors used in the mat are all to be of native dyes. Mrs. Frank Rowe, for the national events committee, gave a very interesting account of the Imperial conference, an account of the sinking of the Valerian, recalling the fact that the members of the crew had attended service in Trinity church, and of the formation of the Canadian Band of Trade which it was hoped was to accomplish great things. Mrs. Richard Hooper, for the agricultural committee, reported that she had been requested to send extracted honey made by her bees in Saint John to the Amherst fair by Mr. Miller, apiculturist, who had pronounced it of exceptional quality.

COMMITTEE NAMED. Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor reported on the luncheon provided for the Health Centre tag day. Arrangements were made for holding a rummage sale on Nov. 18, and Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Lawlor were appointed a committee in charge. For the period of discussion regarding Loyalist women and their experiences, many members related incidents that had been told them by the descendants of Loyalists.

Miss Ethel Haas, Charlis was welcomed as a new member. The meeting accepted gratefully the offer of a lady to serve tea at the next meeting, which will be held on Nov. 22 in the afternoon.

Junior W. A. Members At St. Luke's Have Halloween Party. The Junior W. A. members of St. Luke's church, numbering about 70 children, had a wonderful time yesterday, when a Halloween party was given for them under the direction of their superintendent, Mrs. H. Usher Miller, in the schoolroom of the church. Games and music were heartily enjoyed and the prize winners at games were Gertrude Hanson and Margaret Coombes. Mrs. Miller was assisted by Mrs. A. Wilkins, Mrs. Bell and Miss Francis Godard and the games were directed by Miss Dorothy Sweet. Delicious refreshments were served and those who were in charge of this important part of the afternoon enjoyment were Miss Phyllis Lee, Miss M. Usher, Miss Mary Morrissey and Miss Dorothy Needham and Miss Doris Needham.

Auxiliary Has Good Time At Party; Play Presented

The Monday night branch of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Luke's church had an enjoyable Halloween party in the church rooms last evening, when games were indulged in with much zest and a delightful little play was well presented. Mrs. Lester W. Mowry, president, was in the chair. The title of the playlet was "Sowing for the Harvest" and the cast of characters was as follows: Mrs. Judith, the hostess, Miss Ruth Philbrick; Mrs. Chester, the president, Miss Hazel Shepherd; Mrs. R. B. Powers, the stranger, Mrs. Arthur VanWart; Grandma Gibbs, deaf but persistent, Miss Currie; Lullia Higgins, so sentimental, Miss Roberta Craft; Mrs. Brown, the suffragist, Miss Glenn Morrow; Mrs. Meeker, gone and grown, Miss Irene Moore; Mrs. Day, a bride, Miss Frances Emery; Meely, the hired girl, Mrs. Gordon Foster. The scene was laid in Mrs. Judith's sitting room. The play greatly delighted the audience, and each member of the cast carried out her part excellently. Delicious refreshments were served, under the supervision of Miss Rita Tapley. The committee in charge of the games consisted of Miss Roberta Craft, Mrs. Gordon Foster and Miss Ruth Philbrick.

Title of Head Office of Saint John Ambulance Association Changed. The secretary of the New Brunswick branch of the Saint John Ambulance Association, Miss Irene Barber, has received notification of the change of title of the English, or head office branch of the order which is now to be known as The Grand Priory in the British Realm of the Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem. The ambulance department of the order has two subdivisions, the Ambulance Brigade, which is to do with educational activities and the Ambulance Association, which is to do with the Canadian badge of the order. A distinction has been adopted with the motto of the order in scroll design around the edge. The Canadian branches are now under the old form such as is used by the British branches.

Mrs. H. M. Akerley and Miss Sara Wyatt left last evening on a two weeks visit to Portland, Me., and Boston.
