Water Rising in Saint John River and Tributaries Are Clearing usekeeping room, FREDERICTON, April 25—The Saint John River is rising steadily but is still somewhat below the level at which the ice formed last autumn. Ice in the Nashwaak and other tributaries is breaking up with the rising waters.

Pedestrians can still cross on the ice at Fredericton but it is difficult to reach the ice along the shores. the ice along the shores.

Heavy rain fell today with thunder and lightning at times. Stream driving on some of the smaller streams in this section is expected to begin this week.

As a result of the rain and mild weather melting the deep snow a high freshet is expected. The ice is heavy and is likely to cause damage.

NEW SHAH CROWNED IN TEHERAN PALACE

TEHERAN, Persia, April 25.—The new Shah of Persia, Reza Khan Pehlevi, was crowned today amid scenes of Oriental splendor. The ceremony took place in the Museum Hall of the Old Gulistan Palace. Festivities followed which will continue throughout the week. For the most part these will comprise the ancient customs of Persia, but a modern feature will be the open-
