NEW YORK, Nov. 24.-Supporting ning of today's market and prices noved irregularly higher. Chrysler howed an initial advance of five oints, and General Motors, Hudson and Corn Products advanced a point or two. Brooklyn Union Gas fell back a point. Establishment of a new low record for the year, by French francs at 3831/2 cents apparently was without effect on the stock market.

THAT MUSICAL CLUB.
To the Editor of The Times-Star:
Sir,—My attention has been drawn to a letter that appeared in a recent issue of your paper, in regard to the Ladies' Morning Musical Club meetings, and suggesting that an evening meeting be held.

Permit me to say that the matter has already received our consideration and we expect at the meeting on December 1 to make some announcement in this connection.

He had been out of the country during the 1909 strike and on his return had been employed as overman at Dominion No. 6 from 1913 to 1918. He said antagonism was shown by officials to the miners' proposal to unite with the U. M. W. of A., ciling the manager of the colliery in which he was employed.

The merger with the U. M. W. of A. was finally consummated in 1919, and in the drawing up of the contract with the company, recognizing the U. M. W. of A., a clause was inserted stipulating that local wage rates would not be influenced by conditions in other U. M.

CORRECTION ORDERED. The interest already shown in the club is very encouraging, and we are hopeful that when the full program is given out, it will be shown that we are endeavoring to give the widest possible recognition to the wishes of all persons interested in music.

I find there is an abundance of talent in this city, and, if we as a club can be of assistance in stimulating all music lovers to a greater appreciation of their ability, whatever effort we put into it will repay us all many times over.

CORRECTION ORDERED.

The witness then summed up the history of the U. M. W. through its various struggles thereafter from the MacKinnon Conciliation Board award in 1920, down to the present. He was still giving direct evidence when the commission arose.

John A. Richardson, Bishop of Fredericton, in the course of his sermon before the congregation of Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, on Sunday evening. It was the sixty-sixth anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral.

The past life in the dictator in the cathedral should not decline as years advance.

"No nation is great," continued the Bishop, "that does not gather into its mind the treasures and glories of the past. All life is a legacy and everything in the world today, that is worth while is ours today, because it was somebody else's yesterday."

The past life in the history of the Cathedral should omen well for its future, he thought.
