Costello Beats Gillmore.
Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—Paul Costello, of the Pennsylvania Athletic Club, Philadelphia, former national senior singles sculling champion, defeated W.

E. Garret Gillmore, Philadelphia, by one length here today in the senior championship single races, feature event of the 32nd annual middle states association regatta. The race was rowed over a mile straightaway course on the Schuylkill River and Costello's time was 6 minutes 21.3-5 seconds. Russell Codman, Boston, finished third. Seven contestants entered this event. For the first half mile all the oarsmen were close together.

Power Boat Cruise.
The second annual Labor Day cruise of the St. John Power Boat Club proved a complete success. The cruise left Indiantown at 8 o'clock Saturday afternoon, had supper at Oak Point and reached Jenkins Cove, in the Belkale, by dusk. Five yachts of the R. K. Y. C. joined the cruise there. On Sunday night the residents invited the members to a bonfire sing-song and an enjoyable evening was spent. The cruise left there about 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, towing the yachts as far as Oak Point. They arrived home early last evening.

White Shoes are popular

Every year sees more and more white canvas and white buckskin shoes being worn. Where one time these shoes were worn only for tennis and other outdoor games they are now being worn during business hours both by men and women. It is because they are so wonderfully comfortable and economical that they are so popular. If there is one kind of shoe which must be kept spotlessly clean at all times, it is a white shoe. Clean them with WHITE-O. No matter how dirty they are WHITE-O will make them snow-white. Remember the name. WHITE-O.

"On arriving at the pit's mouth I was offered a wash-up in the company's office but preferred to go to the bathhouse with the men." In this connection he remarked:
"It is evident that when Sir Newton Moore spoke about the bathhouse provided for the men he had in his mind the modern one at Mine No. 2. The one at Caledonia No. 4 Mine was far from being a model one and offered few attractions in the way of cleanliness.
Sanitation Inadequate.
"The solitary latrine provided for the use of the several hundred men working in the mine could not be described in print.
"As regards wages, if employment is continuous, the maximum earning of a large number of the miners would be about $3.35 a day which would amount to $80 a month, but owing to various conditions employment is far from continuous with the result that they frequently fail to obtain a living wage.
