But, without the post offices of any class, the new president will have a multitude of jobs to fill. Then ten cabinet posts, each paying $12,000, of course rank first, although they are not as remunerative as other places at the disposal of the president. The best paying position in the government service, aside from the office of president itself, is that off governor-general of the Philippines, which carries a salary of $18,000; the vice-governor receiving $10,000. Other territorial governorships which President Harding will fill are Porto Rico, $10,000; Alaska, $7,000, and Hawaii, $7,000. Naval officers, who receive the pay of their rank, ahe governors of our other island possessions, such as Samoa, Guam and the Virgin Islands, the latter purchased from Denmark during the Wilson administration. The governor of the Panama Canal, usually an army officer, is paid $10,000.

SEARCH FOR OIL IN HONDURAS

Teuickgalpa, Honduras, Nov. 22.—(A. P. Correspondence)—The government of Honduras has granted two concessions to British representatives by which they acquire rights to search for and exploit any oil fields found by them within the territory of Honduras. One of the British syndicates, The British Consolidated Oil Fields, Limited has already sent its engineers to this country, and they are now searching for oil in various departments of this country.
