LOCAL NEWS

A BRAVE GIRL
A youngster playing the steps at the public wharf at Indian town fell into the water last evening about the time the May Queen was leaving for the river on a moonlight excursion. The little fellow would have been drowned had it not been for his brave little sister, only ten years of age, who managed to pull the boy out of the water.

FOUND LEFER COLONY WITH GIFT OF LORD STRATHCONA

London, June 23—With the late Lord Strathcona's gift of $25,000, the first leper colony in the United Kingdom will be established next fall in a deserted part of Essex. There are now only twenty cases of leprosy in the entire United Kingdom. They are isolated, but widely scattered, and the bringing them together for care at a central colony will not only assure more comfort for the afflicted, but will enable new research into the disease. A specially equipped hospital will be a part of the new colony.

DONALD FRASER TO WED

Fredericton, N. B., June 23—Donald Fraser, of Fraser, Limited, Plaster Rock, N. B., is to be married to Miss Katherine McFarlane, daughter of the late Alexander McFarlane, at the June term of the Court of King's Bench this morning. Chief Justice Langford presiding. A. R. Slipp, K. C., on behalf of the local bar, congratulated him and on his appointment as chief justice. His Honor replied in suitable terms.
