Saint George's Society Draws Attention to Matter and Also Contributes to the Funds

The quarterly meeting of St. George's Society was held last evening in their rooms Gernish street, with the president, G. S. Mayes, in the chair and a full attendance of members present. Routine business was transacted and a motion was unanimously passed voting $100 each to the Patriotic Fund, the Red Cross Society and the Belgium Relief Fund. The following motion was also passed:

Resolved: That the St. George's Society of St. John view with regret the constant disrespect paid to our king and country when the national anthem is played or sung at the close of entertainments, and do hereby urge the public to remain respectfully standing while God Save the King is being played or sung, and that when the national anthem is played in the open, citizens be requested to raise their hats, and soldiers to salute;

And Further Resolved: That copies of this resolution be published in the newspapers and sent to the managers of all theatres and houses of entertainment in the city with a request that it may be brought to the attention of the audiences as often as may be necessary.

NOT KNOWN WHEN FIRST SHIPMENT OF HORSES WILL GO FROM ST. JOHN

Four Hundred More Animals on the Way—The Matter of Getting Them Aboard

Four hundred more horses for remount purposes for the British army are now on their way to St. John, but it is not known when they will reach here. It had been expected that they would be here today. Captain A. W. Grepe, commanding the remount depot here, said today that they would likely be kept here for some time, as he had no orders to make a shipment, nor advice as to the coming of a steamer from the Admiralty.

Regarding the question raised as to whether or not soldiers now on duty and others yet to go on will be used in the embarkation of the animals, or whether the longshoremen about the port will be employed for this service, Captain Grepe said this morning that it was most likely to be the soldiers who would be required to attend to this detail. They were now in the employ of the government, by whom they were being paid, and they were particularly well acquainted with the work of caring for the horses. It was unlikely that they would be required to stand idly by while others did what was really part of their work while on active duty. The detachment of dragoons now engaged will probably be increased very soon.

The I. C. R., at the request of the militia authorities, has extended the siding in Sheffield street so that it is now possible to unload seven cars of horses at once, instead of only four as was the case.

THE END NOT YET

Pink's Fine Paid and Copy of Proceedings Applied For

With the arrest of Wm. C. Pink last evening it was thought the climax of the steps affair had been reached but that view would seem incorrect. Pink had been behind the bars only a very short while, in fact it is said his incarceration was of such short duration he had not removed his cap when counsel appeared the fine of $20 paid and once more the owner of the famous steps was a free man and back in Patrie almost as soon as Policeman Sitson, who made the arrest. He has now asked for a copy of the proceedings in Magistrate Alingham's court and this looks as though the matter would be speedily concluded.

Members of the highway board have expressed themselves as quite opposed now to any amending of the statute, that the steps must come down without any alternative and if not the law can take its full course when they will be up. This is after several conferences have been held and is said to be the last word from the authorities on the subject.

But Pink meanwhile, maintains his position as well, and says he will fight to the end. During the progress of the interesting subject, the steps hold fast to their ground an interesting reminder of the old saying "An Englishman's Home is his castle."

CASE OF CONSTABLE WHO WAS REPORTED TO THE COURT BY POLICEMAN

Constable George Blair appeared in the police court this morning to answer to a charge of standing on a street corner and not moving on when requested to do so by Policeman McLeese on last Thursday evening. McLeese said that on that night he was advised by Deputy Chief Jenkins that there were many corner loafers on his beat and he was instructed to order them to move. He said that Blair was in a group of four at the corner of Charlotte and North streets, that he asked them to move and they stepped back a few steps into the street. He came up to them again and asked them to move, but the defendant told him they were taking their own chances in standing in the street. Blair told him, he said, that he could not arrest them, but had better report them. He reported Blair.

McLeese said that later he met Blair, who told him he was a little far reaching in the matter and told him that if he was reported that he would be charged with assaulting Dr. W. B. Campbell, who was with him in the group.

Blair cross-examined the witness and asked him if he believed in the Bible, which he said he did. When asked if he knew the ninth commandment the witness replied he thought it was something about not telling a lie. Blair then asked the policeman how many drinks he had that night. The magistrate interrupted him and told Blair that was none of his business and had nothing to do with the case.

William Allan and Deputy Jenkins were called as witnesses and told of seeing several persons loafing in Charlotte street that night, but did not remember seeing the defendant early in the evening. The case was adjourned until tomorrow afternoon.

J. Starr Tait was in court and asked that a charge be made against McLeese for assaulting Mr. Campbell. The magistrate said the case would be taken up tomorrow at the same time as it had arisen out of Blair's case.

BUSINESS NOTE

HERE IS CHEERY

That St. John is sticking to the motto "Business as usual," better than any other town or city he has visited is the testimony of a commercial traveler covering the eastern states and the maritime provinces. Everywhere else he has gone he has found business falling off and merchants inclined to a pessimistic view of affairs. In St. John he was surprised and delighted to find conditions so nearly normal with an optimistic tone pervading the whole city and business men and citizens paying strict attention to business instead of sitting back and moaning about the effects of the war.

Pretty Wedding Ceremony This Afternoon at Home of St. John Bride

One of the prettiest society weddings of the season took place at half past four o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Anderson, 128 Wentworth street, when their daughter, Miss Lillian Hayward, became the bride of Bernard Wallace Russell of the legal firm of Connor & Russell, Halifax, and kept here for some time, as he had no orders to make a shipment, nor advice as to the coming of a steamer from the Admiralty.

Regarding the question raised as to whether or not soldiers now on duty and others yet to go on will be used in the embarkation of the animals, or whether the longshoremen about the port will be employed for this service, Captain Grepe said this morning that it was most likely to be the soldiers who would be required to attend to this detail. They were now in the employ of the government, by whom they were being paid, and they were particularly well acquainted with the work of caring for the horses. It was unlikely that they would be required to stand idly by while others did what was really part of their work while on active duty. The detachment of dragoons now engaged will probably be increased very soon.

The I. C. R., at the request of the militia authorities, has extended the siding in Sheffield street so that it is now possible to unload seven cars of horses at once, instead of only four as was the case.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and wedding lunch served. The bride is one of the most charming and popular young ladies in St. John social circles and has received a large number of beautiful and valued presents from many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Russell will leave on the Boston train this evening for a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York and elsewhere. Their future home will be in Dartmouth, N. S.

ENLARGING SCOPE OF BROTHERHOOD WORK

Fairville Matter Given a Start at First Meeting of Season

The Fairville Brotherhood held their first meeting of the season last night and ways and means of providing a more efficient and telling organization were discussed. The subject was opened by Rev. Gilbert Earle, whose ideas followed closely the motto already adopted, Comradeship, Character and Citizenship.

Others favored extending the borders of the society in various ways along the coast, as suggested by experiences in Boston, Hamilton, Ont., and western Canada. It was finally decided to ask for the cooperation of all men from the congregations of the Anglican, Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches-demonstrating the common brotherhood working for the common weal and the community. A committee of two was appointed to interview the ministers and report back after which it is expected some definite, united action will be taken.

This is perhaps a more forward step than has yet been attempted along brotherhood lines even in St. John. As was clearly pointed out by one speaker, it requires the best brains of all the churches to conduct reforms and in a practical way demonstrate brotherhood in any town and with an assured future for Fairville and its environs. No time should be lost in amalgamating forces for the betterment of general conditions of living.

Ho.ding the Market Steady

Advertised goods have won everlasting fame for themselves during the present crisis. They have held out firmly against advances in price even in the face of higher cost of materials.

In most instances manufacturers have been content to see their profits cut, sooner than see their reputations impaired.

Men who advertise are believers in the square deal. They win public confidence because they are deserving of it. They do not take advantage of the public when a pinch comes.
