

BRICK LIME

Ryan's Brick, they are good Brick. We are sole appointed agents for them. Use no other.

Purdy & Green Lime is the very Best and please don't forget it, if you don't believe us ask your mason.

Plastering Hair: We have lots of it.

The Massey-Harris Reaper is light running, and with roller bearings is better than ever, it is the longest lived reaper on the market to-day, ask your neighbour about it

Sherwin-Williams Paints.

SHAW & DIBBLEE,

Hardware and Farm Machinery.

The Local News

Many have begun harvesting.

Most farmers are through with hay-making.

A chance to get $100.00 with every pound of Union Blend Tea.

A farmer near Boistown cut 30 tons of hay off of 10 acres of land.

On Sunday August 13th at Somerville, a son was born to the wife of H. Percy Stevens.

Charles Bear, a Tobique Indian, walked from Woodstock to Andover in one day last week.

It has been stated that the date has been changed from September 5th to September 12th for Camp Sussex.

D. H. Keswick is completing the house begun last summer on the lot next to D. E. Morgan's meat shop.

Parties from Andover driving to private picnics, will, in the future, go provided with pocket bicycles, "Massey-Harris" wheel preferred.

The premium list for the St. John Exhibition is at hand and is one of the most extensive ever put out by the Association. This fall's Exhibition bids fair to surpass all previous ones.

While boating one day last week the family of Geo. Boyer, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Davis, and Miss Annie Davis got some what damp. A short distance from the shore the boat commenced to rock, and all excepting Mr. Boyer were thrown out. Fortunately the water was not very deep, and they all escaped without any more injury than a cold water bath.

By the breaking of a cogwheel Sawyers mill was shut down on Tuesday.

The excursion to St Stephen under the auspices of the Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools takes place next Tuesday, August 22nd. Tickets from Woodstock are $1.25.

Remember the meeting next Tuesday evening August 22nd in the interest of starting a pork packing establishment in Hartland. There should be a good attendance from all around.

On Sunday there drove up from Woodstock a buckboard party consisting of S. Gordon Smith, Eldin Fisher, A. L. Tremlet, J. G. Christie, T. L. Faye, John J. Tattersall, Tim Fields, and A. J. Evans.

A Maine farmer declares that he fears no drought, since he was wise enough to plant onions with his potatoes. "The onions," he says, "draw tears from the eyes of his potatoes, which water the land."

In the paper on Plymouth Rock fowls which we published last week, there appeared an error. That which read $1.75 should have been $175.00. These papers by Mr. Hurst are very instructive and should be carefully read by all farmers.

Rev. C. T. Phillips has accepted the call to the Waterloo Street Free Baptist church, St. John. This is only the third change Mr. Phillips has made during his pastorate of thirty years, having been at Sussex 15 years, and at Woodstock the same number.

A disastrous cyclone swept over the West Indies last week, lasting for nine hours. Hundreds of lives were lost, and there was immense destruction of property, whole villages and towns being totally destroyed. The remaining people are in a deplorable condition. Thousands are homeless and a famine is impending.

The Woodstock Woolen Mills with land and stock was sold by sheriff's auction on the 11th inst., and was bid in by the Peoples' Bank for $800.

The young child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher of Fredericton, died on August 13th at the home of Mrs. Fisher's mother, Mrs. R. K. Jones, Woodstock.

The following young men from Knowlesville left Hartland station on the Farmers' Excursion, on Tuesday for Mossejaw, B. C.: Prince Whitehouse, Ivory Correy, Edward Carl, Whitefield Gascoigne, William Montgomery, Hadden Frazer, Fred Withrow, — Doucette, and several Gardner boys. Thomas Gardiner and family and Mrs. McEwen and children who goes to meet her husband, took the same train for Manitoba.

Managers of fake schools, and so called business colleges are seeking dupes when they advertise "to teach shorthand in one month," or "Shorthand in 12 lessons." The Robert F. Rose School for Shorthand, Chicago, Ill., offers a positive guarantee to teach the art by mail in twenty-eight weekly lessons. This guarantee is extended, however, only to such applicants whose replies to the preliminary examination shows them capable of mastering the art. No others will be taught. Mr. Rose, who is regarded as one of the most expert stenographers in this country, gives his personal attention to the work of each pupil. See advertising columns for further particulars.

Mrs. John Barker of Marysville, recently opened a jar of strawberry jam of exceptionally fine flavor and condition that she had put up ten years ago.

William McFarlane had a narrow escape from serious injury on Monday. In coming down stairs he in some way slipped and fell, and being quite an elderly man and lame it is a wonder that he was not more badly hurt. As it was he sustained some injury.

The pastorate committee of the Hartland and Brighton Free Baptist church met at Lower Brighton last Friday night and unanimously voted to invite the Rev. J. B. Daggett to remain another year on the circuit. Mr. Daggett has not yet given his answer to the committee.

WILL BE HERE.

IN HARTLAND

FOR A FEW DAYS

ONLY,

G. A. KEITH

This space is

Goodhue's

the jeweler

Fort Fairfield.

Watch what he says from week to week.

Great Bargains.