THE WINDSOR RUINS.

Generous Contributions of Money and Clothing from St. John.

John McIntyre, a Wall to do Farmer, Has Been Placed in Kentville Jail.

His Alleged Confession After Being Placed Under Arrest—The Total Loss by Fire

(From Daily Sun, October 20.) The Windsor fire and the necessity for immediate assistance still engages the attention of the citizens, and yesterday a vast amount of clothing was collected and a large amount of money subscribed.

A telegram was received from the St. John committee at Windsor asking for cutlery and preserved meat and other cooked food. Lady Tilley also received an answer to the telegram sent Monday, which stated that a committee of ladies to assist in organization would be most acceptable at Windsor.

General Manager Pottinger of the I. C. R. was immediately communicated with in reference to a car for the ladies to live in and the committee will leave today, ready to start for Windsor.

willing to take half the stock and commence the erection of works immediately.

The following donations were received this afternoon: Pictou, $1,000.

L. Higgins and donations that have been received at Windsor, $500. W. B. Campbell, Montreal, $1,000. Springhill, $100.

Imperial Oil Co., St. John, $500. Moncton, $1,000. Annapolis, $300.

I. C. R. Engineers, $20. Prof. E. F. DeMille, $10. Eighteen carloads have arrived from different points, and 2,500 applications for food and clothing were filed.

There was a constant stream of sufferers receiving aid at the distributing quarters tonight.

Five Berks soldiers are on guard near the relief quarters and ten are at the railway station. A determined attempt was made by thieves to steal from provision care. The men were held up by the Berks, handed over to the authorities, and were subsequently released with a caution.

A number of burglaries have been committed. The premises of Charles Haley were burglarized and valuable articles stolen. Messrs. Rockwell and Smith have opened a general store in the foundry office.

An investigation into the cause of the fire has been ordered. George Fletcher, in whose premises the fire caught, was located by the Sun. He admits that the fire occurred in his premises, but denies that it was willfully set on fire. He is under police surveillance.

A big meeting of Masons and Odd-fellows was held this evening and a large sum of money and clothing was subscribed.

A large building is to be erected at once by Joshua Smith. It will contain four stores.

The frame of a building for the Windsor Plaster Co. arrived this evening. It has been decided to rebuild the furniture factory.

Thieves stole articles valued at $300 from W. H. Payzant.

Churhill & Sons' loss is $65,000. They will rebuild the block of buildings at once.

The estate of Bennett Smith will be valued at $50,000.

MONCTON. Relief Being Sent Forward. MONCTON, Oct. 20.—At a special meeting of the city council yesterday the $7,000 for the relief of the Windsor sufferers authorized by the meeting of October 15 was formally voted and ordered to be sent forward to Halifax. The clerks in the storekeepers and engineers' offices of the I. C. R. have forwarded $45 and the Merchants' Bank of Halifax has forwarded $40 received from Oliver Jones, $10 from A. H. Jones and $10 from Prof. Watts, half the latter amount being the Methodist choir's contribution. A quantity of clothing has been sent forward.

WINDSOR, Oct. 20.—A town in ruins is not a pleasant spectacle. To many it possesses the attraction of a novelty, but to residents of St. John in this time of disaster it is a painful reminder of what is to be expected.
