TWO IN A DAY.

"May, didn't you feel very bad when your engagement was broken off?"

"Yes; and I had another dreadful blow the same day—my new hat came home and didn't suit me."

"It is indeed hard," said the melan-choly gentleman, "to lose one's rela-tives."

"Hard!" snorted the gentleman of wealth. "Hard! It is impossible!"

Frank White, the King street confectioner, has offered a prize for com-petition in the local league. It is ex-pected that there will be sufficient prizes donated so as to make it possible for the executive to present a prize to the players making the best averages batting average, largest number of runs, fewest errors, best all round avrage, strike out, stolen bases, etc. The winning the league will own at least three prizes, viz. Mr. McKeown's cup, pennant from A. G. Spaulding & Co., and medals of something similar from Mayor White. This combination of prizes is stirring up a rivalry as never witnessed heretofore.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Allan Green, of Cushing's mill, had a bert Flood.

The elections will take place at the the falls yesterday. Young Green was cruising alone in a skiff boat about Indiantown harbor, when a sudden gust overturned his little boat. Green succeeded in climbing on the bottom of the up-turned boat. The boat, which was drifting toward the falls was quickly observed by Capt. Leonard, of the Pleasant Point ferry steamer E. Ross, who lost no time in going to the lad's assistance. He was soon got on board and the boat righted and taken
