Say, "I Will Have a Good Suit,"

Meaning, of course, not merely a Suit that LOOKS well but one that will hold its shape and original elegance for months and months—through two or three seasons if need be.

The NEW Spring styles of 20th Century Suits await you here. You'll like the cut. You'll like the fit. You'll admire the modish patterns.

And you'll keep right on liking the way they wear. We do not hesitate to GUARANTEE these Suits to be exactly what they seem. In fact the manufacturers also guarantee them.

The executive which was selected at Tuesday night's meeting, is now seeking necessary information along various lines, and will meet at the call of the President, Dr. Thomas Walker.

If last night's rain had come in the form of snow traffic would have been pretty well tied up this morning.

Snow fell yesterday forenoon and afternoon until three o'clock, the elevation being one and a half inches.

There have been changes in the wind too. Last night for a few moments it blew at a forty-eight mile clip, and from eight till nine o'clock was at the rate of thirty-seven miles.

In January of last year the total snowfall was ten inches; last month it was seven inches. In February 1908 the snowfall was only four inches, while this month it has been sixteen inches.

TEN LIFE MEMBERS ALREADY PROMISED

Anti-Tuberculosis Association Has a Good Start

Large Number Promise to Join—Executive Will Soon Meet to Select County Vice-Presidents.

Although the Anti-Tuberculosis Association was formally organized only two nights ago it has already secured a fair start and the indications are that a very wide interest in the movement will be taken.

At the close of the meeting in the Opera House Tuesday night between thirty and forty membership cards were handed in, but a great many more of those in the audience took the circulars sent out, these replies being all favorable to the movement.

In addition some eight or ten persons have announced their intention of becoming life members, in fact two have already done so by paying the fee of $5.00.

The executive which was selected at Tuesday night's meeting, is now seeking necessary information along various lines, and will meet at the call of the President, Dr. Thomas Walker.
