Memorial Service in the Methodist

HAMPTON, Jan. 28.-Last evening the Rev. W. W. Lodge held a mem-orial service in the Methodist church, Hampton, in loving remembrance of our last most gracious lamented sovereign, Queen Victoria. The front of the organ was draped a Hercules, with a capacity of from thirty-six to forty thousand a day. with the national flag shrouded Thirty-five horses are kept employed, crape, with streamers at either end. The Scripture lessons read were which are housed in six stables. These, with a large and well stocked store, cook houses and lodging build-Psalm xc. and St. John's gospel, chap. xiv., from the verse beginning "Let not your heart be troubled." The ings for the eighty men employed, form quite a woodland village well hymns sung were "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Able with Me," "Asleep in Jesus," and "Jesus, While Our Hearts Are Bleeding," in addition to worth a visit by those interested in which the choir sang the motett Heard a Voice from Heaven." and B. B. Barnes an aria, 'One Sweetly Solemn Thought.' The sermon was founded on the text Matthew 25:23, "Well done, good and faithful servant.' In the course of his sermon Rev. thre Mr. Lodge paid a fervent tribute to the virtues of the Queen-mother, emphasizing the facts that the secret of her pre-eminence was her life in Christ. And now on this January Sabbath, when the snow covers hill and plain and the frozen streams make earth seem little more than a ball of ice, we meet to mourn our the dead sovereign as she lies in her white habilament of death. But the earth is not dead; the returning spring will soon be here, and summer with its brightness and blossoms. So, too, will the life of the nation throb and burst forth with a glad time of rejoicing under our good King Edward the Seventh, who, walking in the footsteps of his loved and lamented mother, upheld by the same principles and working toward the same goal, shayy by and bye also hear the glad welcome, "Well done, good and fithful servant, enter into the glory of thy Lord.." "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Yea, saith the spirit, for they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

COTTON DEAL.

FALL RIVER, Mass, Jan. 28.—The stock of cotton in this city was reduced today by about 5,000 bales as a result of the "squeeze" in the New York cotton market, and many local brokers who were fortunate enough in being able to obtain freightage for their hold-ings have cleared considerable amounts of money as a result of their transactions. The price offered today for cotton, 12.75 cents, is the highest recorded in 18 years, and was a very tempting offer for local holders of the raw material, who purchased their stocks at prices ranging from 9 to 10 cents per pound. Many of the mills here, which had large how prices, would have been glad to take advantage of the "squeeze" and re-sell their cotton had it been possible to secure ship-ment of it in time to be delivered and sam-pled in New York before the close of Janu-ary. As it happened, only brokers who were on the "inside" of the movement, and who bought large lots for speculative purposes, work prices today.
