

Provincial News

ST. MARTINS, Jan. 4.—A sleighing party given by Wendell Bently to a large number of his friends Wednesday afternoon was a pronounced success.

Miss Ina Calhoun left Thursday morning for Woodstock.

Miss Joyce Wishart, who is attending High School in St. John, left here after her Christmas holidays on Thursday.

Miss S. Moran left for Berwick, N. B., Tuesday, to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Moran.

Miss Adella Ruddick of Hampton is the guest of Mrs. (Dr.) Gollmer.

Miss Lowell, wife of James Lowell, M. P., is the guest of Mrs. (Dr.) Ruddick.

MILLTOWN, Jan. 5.—James McGouldrie, who is employed in a cotton mill at Dover, N. H., is the guest of his family.

James Smith, painter and decorator, of Milltown, is employed at Topsfield on the beautiful new residence of O. H. Taylor of Topsfield.

A large number of friends are sympathizing with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray, who are attending the loss of their only child, Mildred, aged nine years.

Next week will be the week of prayer, and will be observed by union meetings, Monday evening at the Methodist church, Milltown, N. B.; subject, Believers Aroused to a Sense of Religious Duty, Tuesday evening.

Methodist, Milltown, Maine, topic, The Church Renewed in the Love of God, Wednesday evening at the Congregationalist, The Arousing of the Dead, Thursday evening, Baptist church, Milltown, Maine, topic, A Genuine and Great Revival, Services begin at the hour of seven, eastern standard time.

Miss Millie Maxwell is confined to her home with rheumatism.

Joseph Osborne, who received a bad shaking up on the W. C. R. F., is able to ride out, much to the delight of his many friends.

Miss Lettie Glover and Miss Ada White have returned after a delightful trip to Vancouver.

Victoria Lodge, No. 26, A. F. and A. M., entertained guests at their hall Friday evening. During the evening whist and dancing were enjoyed. Refreshments consisting of cake and ice cream were served.

CUMBERLAND BAY, Jan. 3.—The smallpox epidemic which has been the last of the quarantined houses here, having been released.

The community was saddened to hear of the death of John T. son of Mr. and Mrs. John Grant, who died at his home on Dec. 27th of consumption. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bell. Besides the father and mother, his brother, James, and two sisters survive. The latter are Mrs. Whitfield Odell of this place and Edith of St. John.

At the home of the bride's father, John Kelly, his daughter Eva was united in marriage to William G. Barton on Dec. 27th by the Rev. Mr. Brown. About forty guests were present. After the ceremony the guests retired to the dining room, where dinner was served.

Gordon Knight will teach here next term. Chesley McKeen will have charge of the upper district school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Irons of St. John are spending the holidays with friends here.

Mrs. Lydia Barton is visiting Mrs. Andrew Smyth.

Miss Violet Smyth is spending the winter in St. John.

Mrs. James Panghen, who has been confined to his home on account of illness, is able to get out again.

Miss Annie Smyth has returned from Cape Cove, where she was visiting friends.

Thomas Smyth has received a diploma from the department of agriculture of the Dominion of Canada as one of the contributors to the Louisiana exposition.

MILLSTREAM, Jan. 2.—Stanley Chittick of Mantown met with a serious accident last week while yarding lumber. He was about to attach the twitching grips to a log, when his horse started quickly, and he became entangled in the grips and was dragged several yards before he got free. He sustained several severe lacerations. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Brundage of Millstream, and he is now resting comfortably.

Miss Edna Kierstead is to teach the present Ridge school next term.

Miss Nettie Perwick spent part of her Christmas vacation in St. John.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold a "Tennyson Evening" in the hall at Mt. Middleton on Wednesday evening, January 10th.

HARCOURT, Jan. 4.—Dr. M. F. Keith of Moncton was here on business on the 2nd inst. His daughter, Miss Blanche, is visiting here.

Cash or Cure

If Shiloh's Consumption Cure fails to cure your Cough or Croup, you get back all you paid for it. You are sure of a Cure or the Cash.

If it wasn't a sure cure, this offer would not be made.

Can anything be fairer?

If you have a Cough, Croup, or any disease of the Throat, Lungs or Wind Pipes, try

SHILOH

25c. per bottle. All dealers guarantee it.

M. Robert Worrell, S. W.; Spencer Farmer, J. W.; A. A. Rigby, P. M.; George G. H. Lamb, P. M., sec. Thos. Armstrong, P. M., D. O. C.; William Clarke, P. M., chap.; D. C. Rollins, P. M., S. D.; S. E. Field, P. M., J. D.; George Gardner, S. S.; J. W. McBride, J. S.; Edwin Thurber, Tyler. After the lodge closed the brethren were guests of T. A. Hart, W. M., to an oyster supper, coffee, sandwiches, etc., served in the lodge room.

D. C. Clark, contractor for building the dam at Katey's Cove, spent the holidays in St. John. He returned to St. Andrews by C. P. R. on Wednesday, and presented each of his employees here with a cash gift for the New Year.

The curvature of the centre at the Katey's Cove dam caused by the strong run of the water has been put back in its place and secured by piles, so that movement is not likely to occur again.

Miss Lizzie Cathcart has gone to visit friends in Montreal.

John S. Maceo has returned from Moncton, where he had a pleasant holiday visiting his son, John B., and other friends in the railroad city.

Mrs. F. G. Andrews has returned home again from visiting friends at Woodstock.

Robert J. Langford, son of the rector of All Saints' church, a student at Kingston Military School, passed the holidays at the rectory. He has returned to the school. He discovered at the railway station as the train was about to pull out that he had left his return ticket at the rectory. Conductor for Smith held the train for ten minutes, the young man started on the run for his ticket and got back within the time. The ground covered was nearly a mile and a half. Some one expressed a doubt of his ability to do it, and his father was confident that he could do it, and the result justified his confidence.

A. J. Kerr, for some time past manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here, has been transferred to the bank at Sydney, N. S. He left by the C. P. R. on Wednesday evening. He was a most obliging and popular officer. He carries with him the good wishes of the bank's patrons in St. Andrews. J. W. Corning, accountant of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Ottawa, has succeeded Mr. Kerr as manager of the bank here.

Mrs. C. M. Gove has gone to St. Stephen to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer.

SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 5.—Hotel Cecil, formerly the Cabot, was practically destroyed by a fire, which started at about four o'clock this morning, and was extinguished about an hour afterwards. The blaze originated in the lower part of the building, and when the firemen arrived the basement was a mass of blaze.

The fire was great excitement among the guests who had to be rescued from the upper rooms by ladders raised to the windows.

The fire in the basement was got under control by the firemen after a short fight, but broke out afresh in the upper stories, and after strenuous work was extinguished altogether.

The loss is roughly estimated at $12,000, on which there is $7,000 insurance.

Wm. Blair, the proprietor, was in the city only a few hours when the fire broke out, he having arrived from Amherst last night. This is the second visitation for the Hotel Cecil.

The firemen were brought out again about 8 o'clock by an alarm which came from the store of T. F. Fortune & Co. on Prince street. This proved to be a chimney fire and was put out in a few minutes.

SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 5.—One of the large cars of the Sydney and Gloucester Bay tram line struck a Whitney avenue car this evening at the George street crossing, and a derailment of the latter car resulted. The Whitney avenue car was slightly damaged, but no one was hurt.

MONCTON, N. B., Jan. 7.—St. Bernard's amateur minstrel put on an excellent show in the basement of the church on Friday evening, the proceeds being for the benefit of the poor.

Among those who took part in the solo work was Mrs. J. P. Hogan, formerly of St. John, whose singing came in for much special praise. J. H. Corcoran of the I. C. R. passenger agents' Whitney avenue car this evening at the George street crossing, and a derailment of the latter car resulted. The Whitney avenue car was slightly damaged, but no one was hurt.

As an illustration of how affairs are managed on the Intercolonial Railway, job employment and dismissal of ex-Fullerton Edward Scott may be cited. The department was in need of a watchman, and as Mr. Scott is well qualified for the position, he was taken on without the knowledge of the patronage committee. When the appointment came to the ears of the machine workers they commenced to hustle and Mr. Scott, after working for two whole days, received notice of instant dismissal. It appears that Mr. Scott is a conservative, a fact that does not appear to have been taken into consideration by those who gave him the job, and such a thing as giving a job to anyone who would not produce credentials as a good liberal is not to be tolerated.

Ten new locomotives for the I. C. R. have arrived at St. Charles Junction, from the Kingston and American works. They will be put into service as required. Old railway men say that the present winter for mildness has had few parallels in their experience, and freight traffic has been carried forward with as little interruption as in the summer months. There is very little frost in the ground and the track has so far required no attention whatever on this account.

William O'Brien, an I. C. R. employee, aged 25, who died last week of consumption, was buried on Saturday under the auspices of the C. M. B. A., of which he was a member.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians' ladies' auxiliary of Moncton, have their annual at home in the Pythian Hall on Wednesday evening next. The affair is under the management of a committee consisting of W. Gallagher, John O'Neill, John Kennedy, Joseph Graham and T. J. Hogan, the chaperones being Mrs. James Flanagan, Mrs. M. Wynn, and Mrs. M. O'Brien.

Another young I. C. R. clerk has gone west, John Buchanan of the freight claims office, who has accepted a more lucrative position on the Canadian Northern at Winnipeg. Mr. Buchanan's fellow clerks presented him with a purse of money previous to his departure, and the Y. M. C. A. boys gave him a handsome dressing jacket accompanied by an address expressive of their approval and hoping for his success in the west.

ANDOVER, N. B., Jan. 6.—The great social event of the season came off last evening, when the officers and members of Benjamin Lodge, F. and A. M., treated their friends to an at home. It was the first social function of the kind held in their new hall since its capacity was increased to the most over two hundred being present. The guests were received by Worshipful Master Sutton and his associate officers and were entertained during the first part of the evening on a certain amount of given consisting of songs and recitations and quartettes by local talent, after an address of welcome had been given by Thomas Lawson, after which dancing commenced at the "Lodge Room" hours. Excellent music was furnished by O'poly's orchestra.

FRANCE REFUSES TO LEND RUSSIA MONEY.

PARIS, Jan. 7.—M. Kokovoff, former Russian minister of finance, who came here to see the king, has returned practically convinced that Russia will not be able to obtain the money which she needs for the war. He has been told that the French government is not prepared to lend Russia money, and that the English government is not prepared to do so either.

The budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

He said that the budget for 1906, which is about $246,500,000, of which only $5,000,000 are covered by the excess or revenue from the ordinary budget. Thus $241,500,000 remain to be provided. Three of the heaviest items included therein are provision for the repatriation of the troops in the Far East, their maintenance until their return to Russia, and the reimbursement of Japan's war expenses. In the course of an interview today, M. Kokovoff gave a statement relative to Russia's real financial position.

Impressions of a Canadian Journalist in England.

Chamberlain is Still Surprisingly Youthful in Appearance—He is in Good Health and Will Make a Hard Fight.

(Manitoba Free Press.) BIRMINGHAM, Dec. 15.—The greatest surprise I have experienced during my present visit to England has been occasioned by the wonderful state of preservation in which Mr. Chamberlain remains after all these years. As I had not heard him speak for nearly two decades, I naturally expected that more than a few marks of increasing age would be visible on his outer man.

But his capacity was equal to the most arduous work, and he was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours. He was in the habit of working for long hours.

Hold Your Wool Hewson Cloths and Yarns until you have seen the new for this year. Made in the big new mill at Amherst. For sale and exchange almost everywhere, but if you do not know, drop us a post card and we will tell you all.

ST. JOHN SEMI-WEEKLY SUN 4,992 Columns a Year. 8 Pages Twice a Week. ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. If Paid in Advance, 75 Cents.

The Best Family Paper for old and young in the Maritime Provinces. RELIABLE MARKET REPORTS. FULL SHIPPING NEWS. SERMONS. STORIES BY EMINENT AUTHORS. THE TURF, THE FIELD AND THE FARM. SEND FOR A COPY--FREE.

Have you a friend in St. John? Ask him if he reads THE SUN, In the morning and THE STAR, In the evening.

These papers have a combined circulation of about 10,000 a day.